Jack...? Jack I'm...
I'm sorry for my attitude earlier...

It's okay, we both got a bit heated, we're both stressed.

That's why-
That's why I have a place in mind for us to visit.
Oh? Where?
You'll see.

themightyfluffyone asked:
So how well has Sexy recovered?
slowpokeanon asked:
So what now Doc? The TARDIS should have her energy back. And there shouldn't be much too do in this universe.
She's doing well now, so we can finally leave the dreaded 'Pun-iverse' daswienaboo asked:

Hey Doctor, aren't you still worried about the TARDIS? The alarms had to have gone off for a reason. Do you really think it would be so easy to just leave once you're ready?
WRORP WRORP
It's just Canterlot she doesn't like. We wont be going there.

eternalinfernape asked:
Doctor, if the walls between the alternate 'ponyverses' are not in place, and you can travel to them, would it be possible for others to travel to these universes?
Well, sure, if they have the means to travel through the vortex and are aware of the other universes...

dukesliscus asked:
Where are you guys off to now traken, telos, or somewhere unknown to all of recorded history.
We're going to the best place in Equestria to relax and let bose.

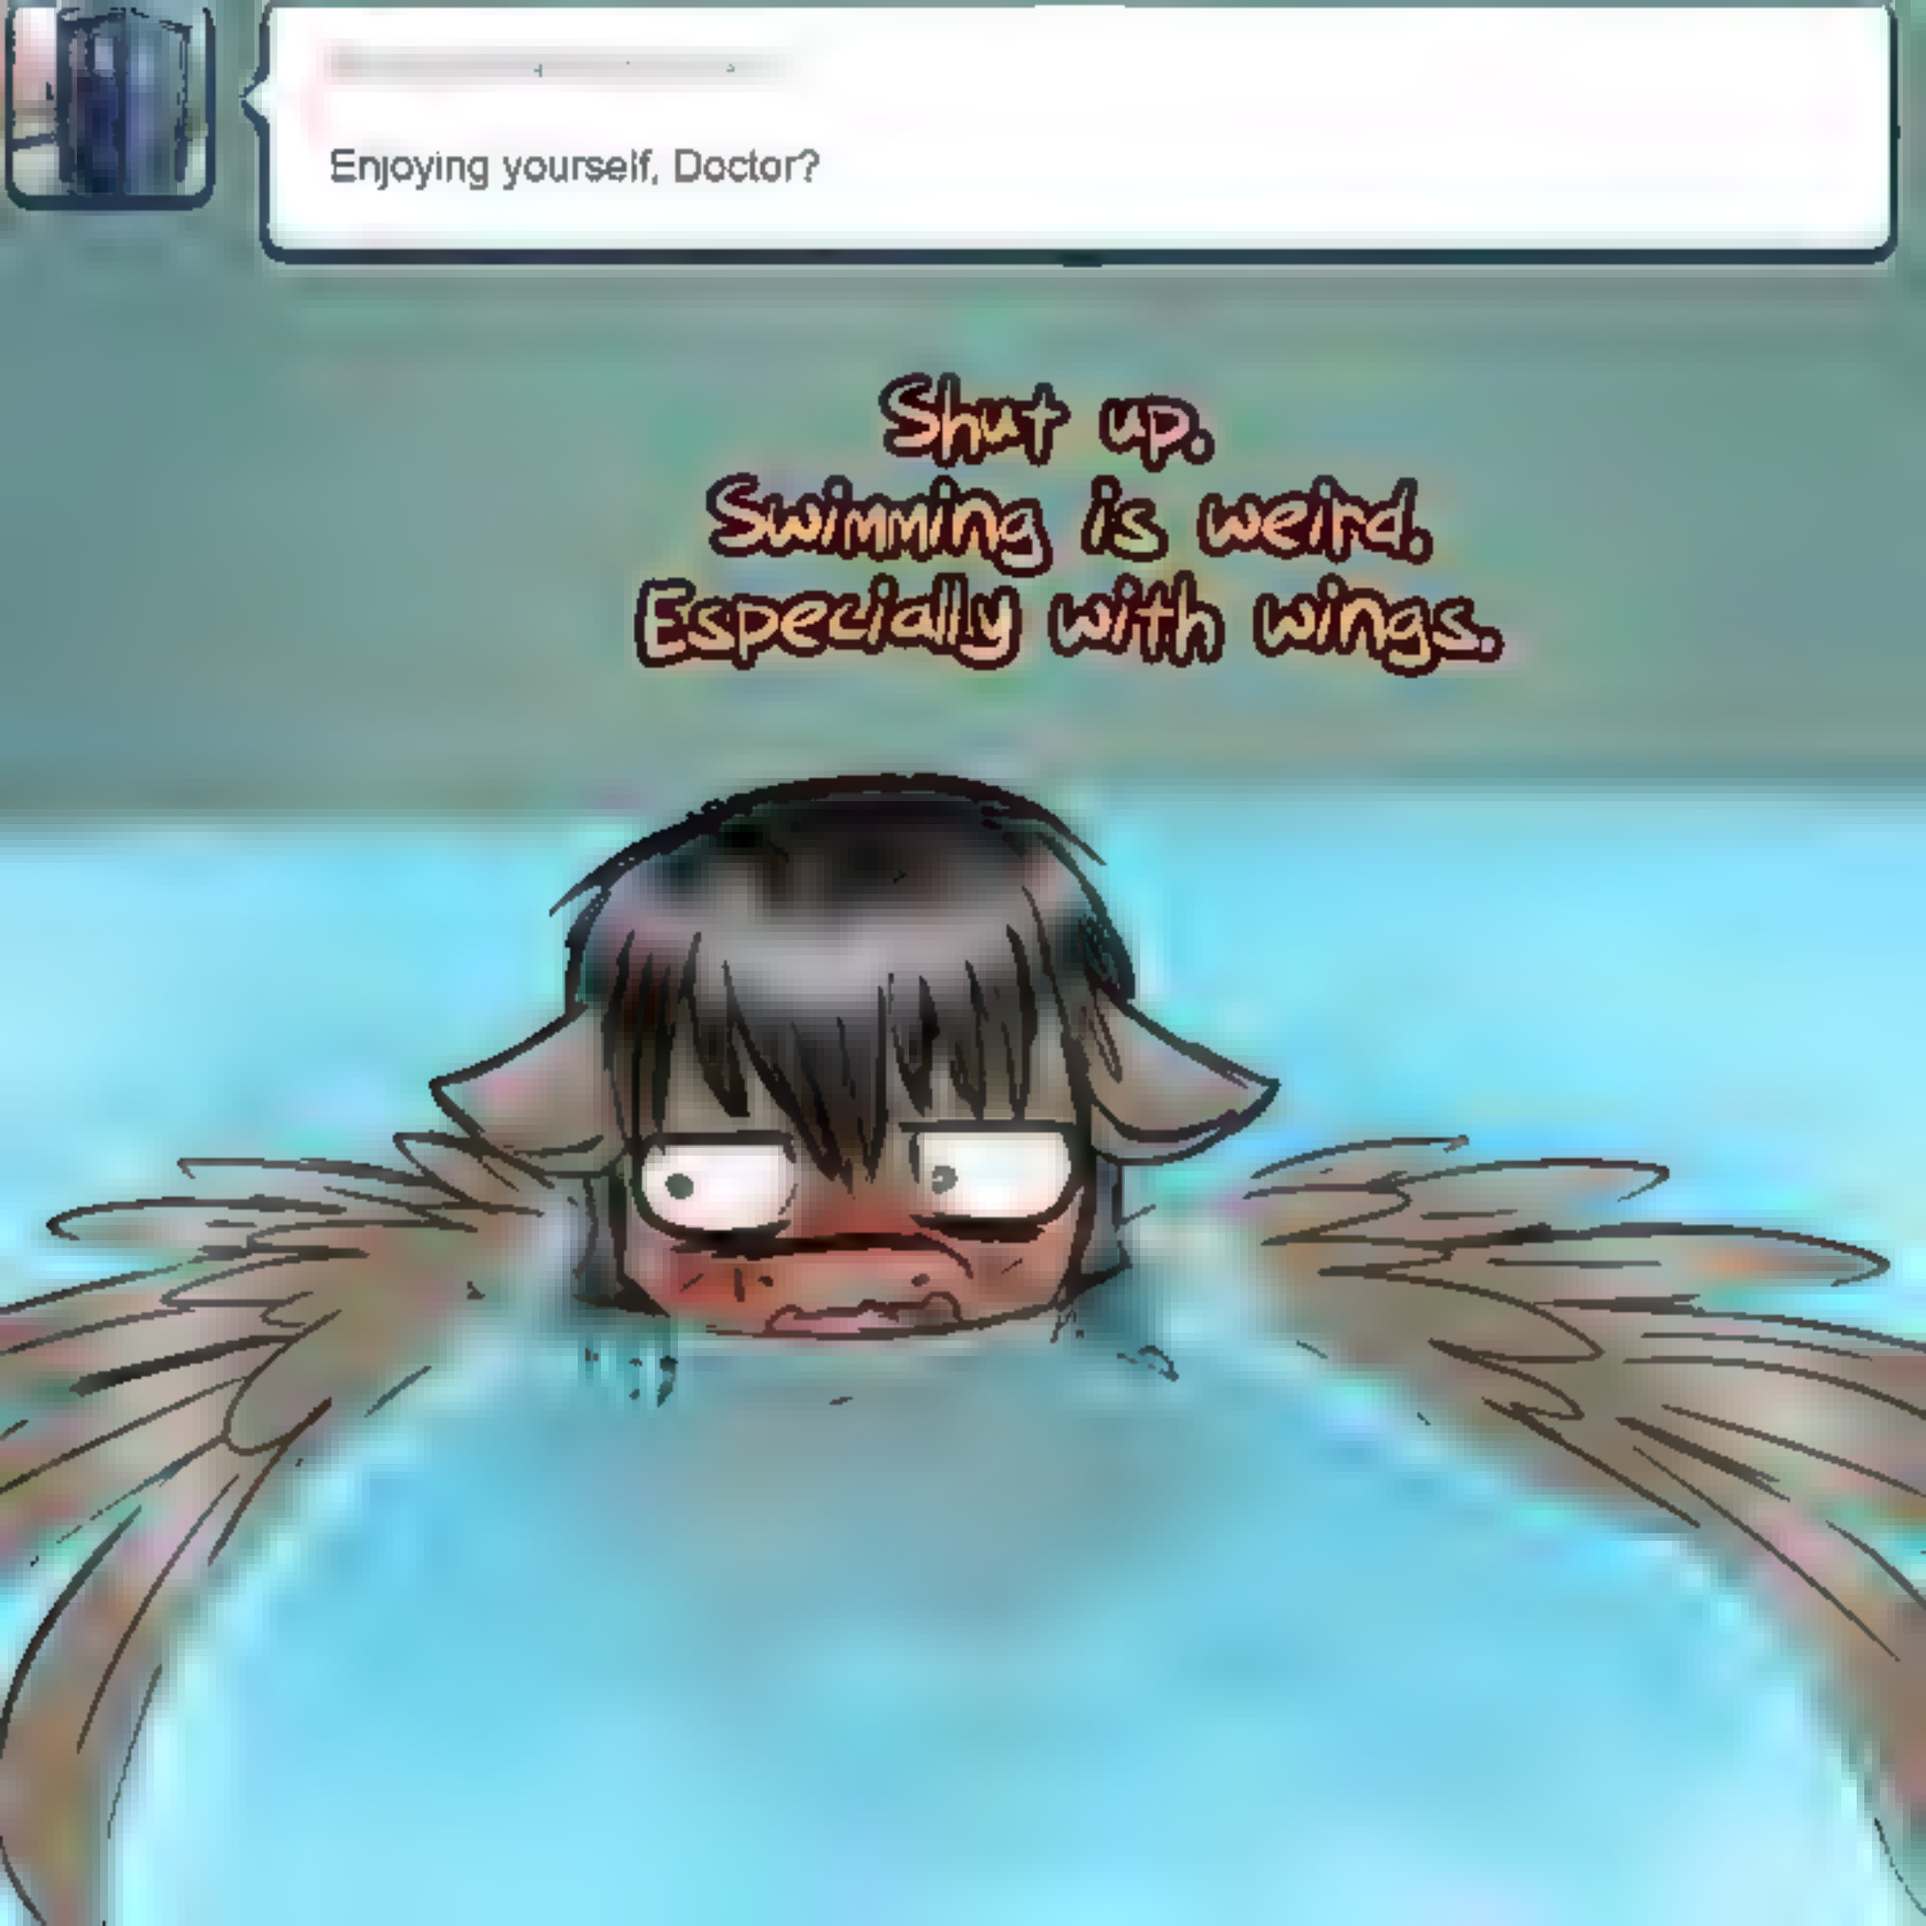
So Jack, you having fun?
Well, sure, but it all feels a bit contrived...

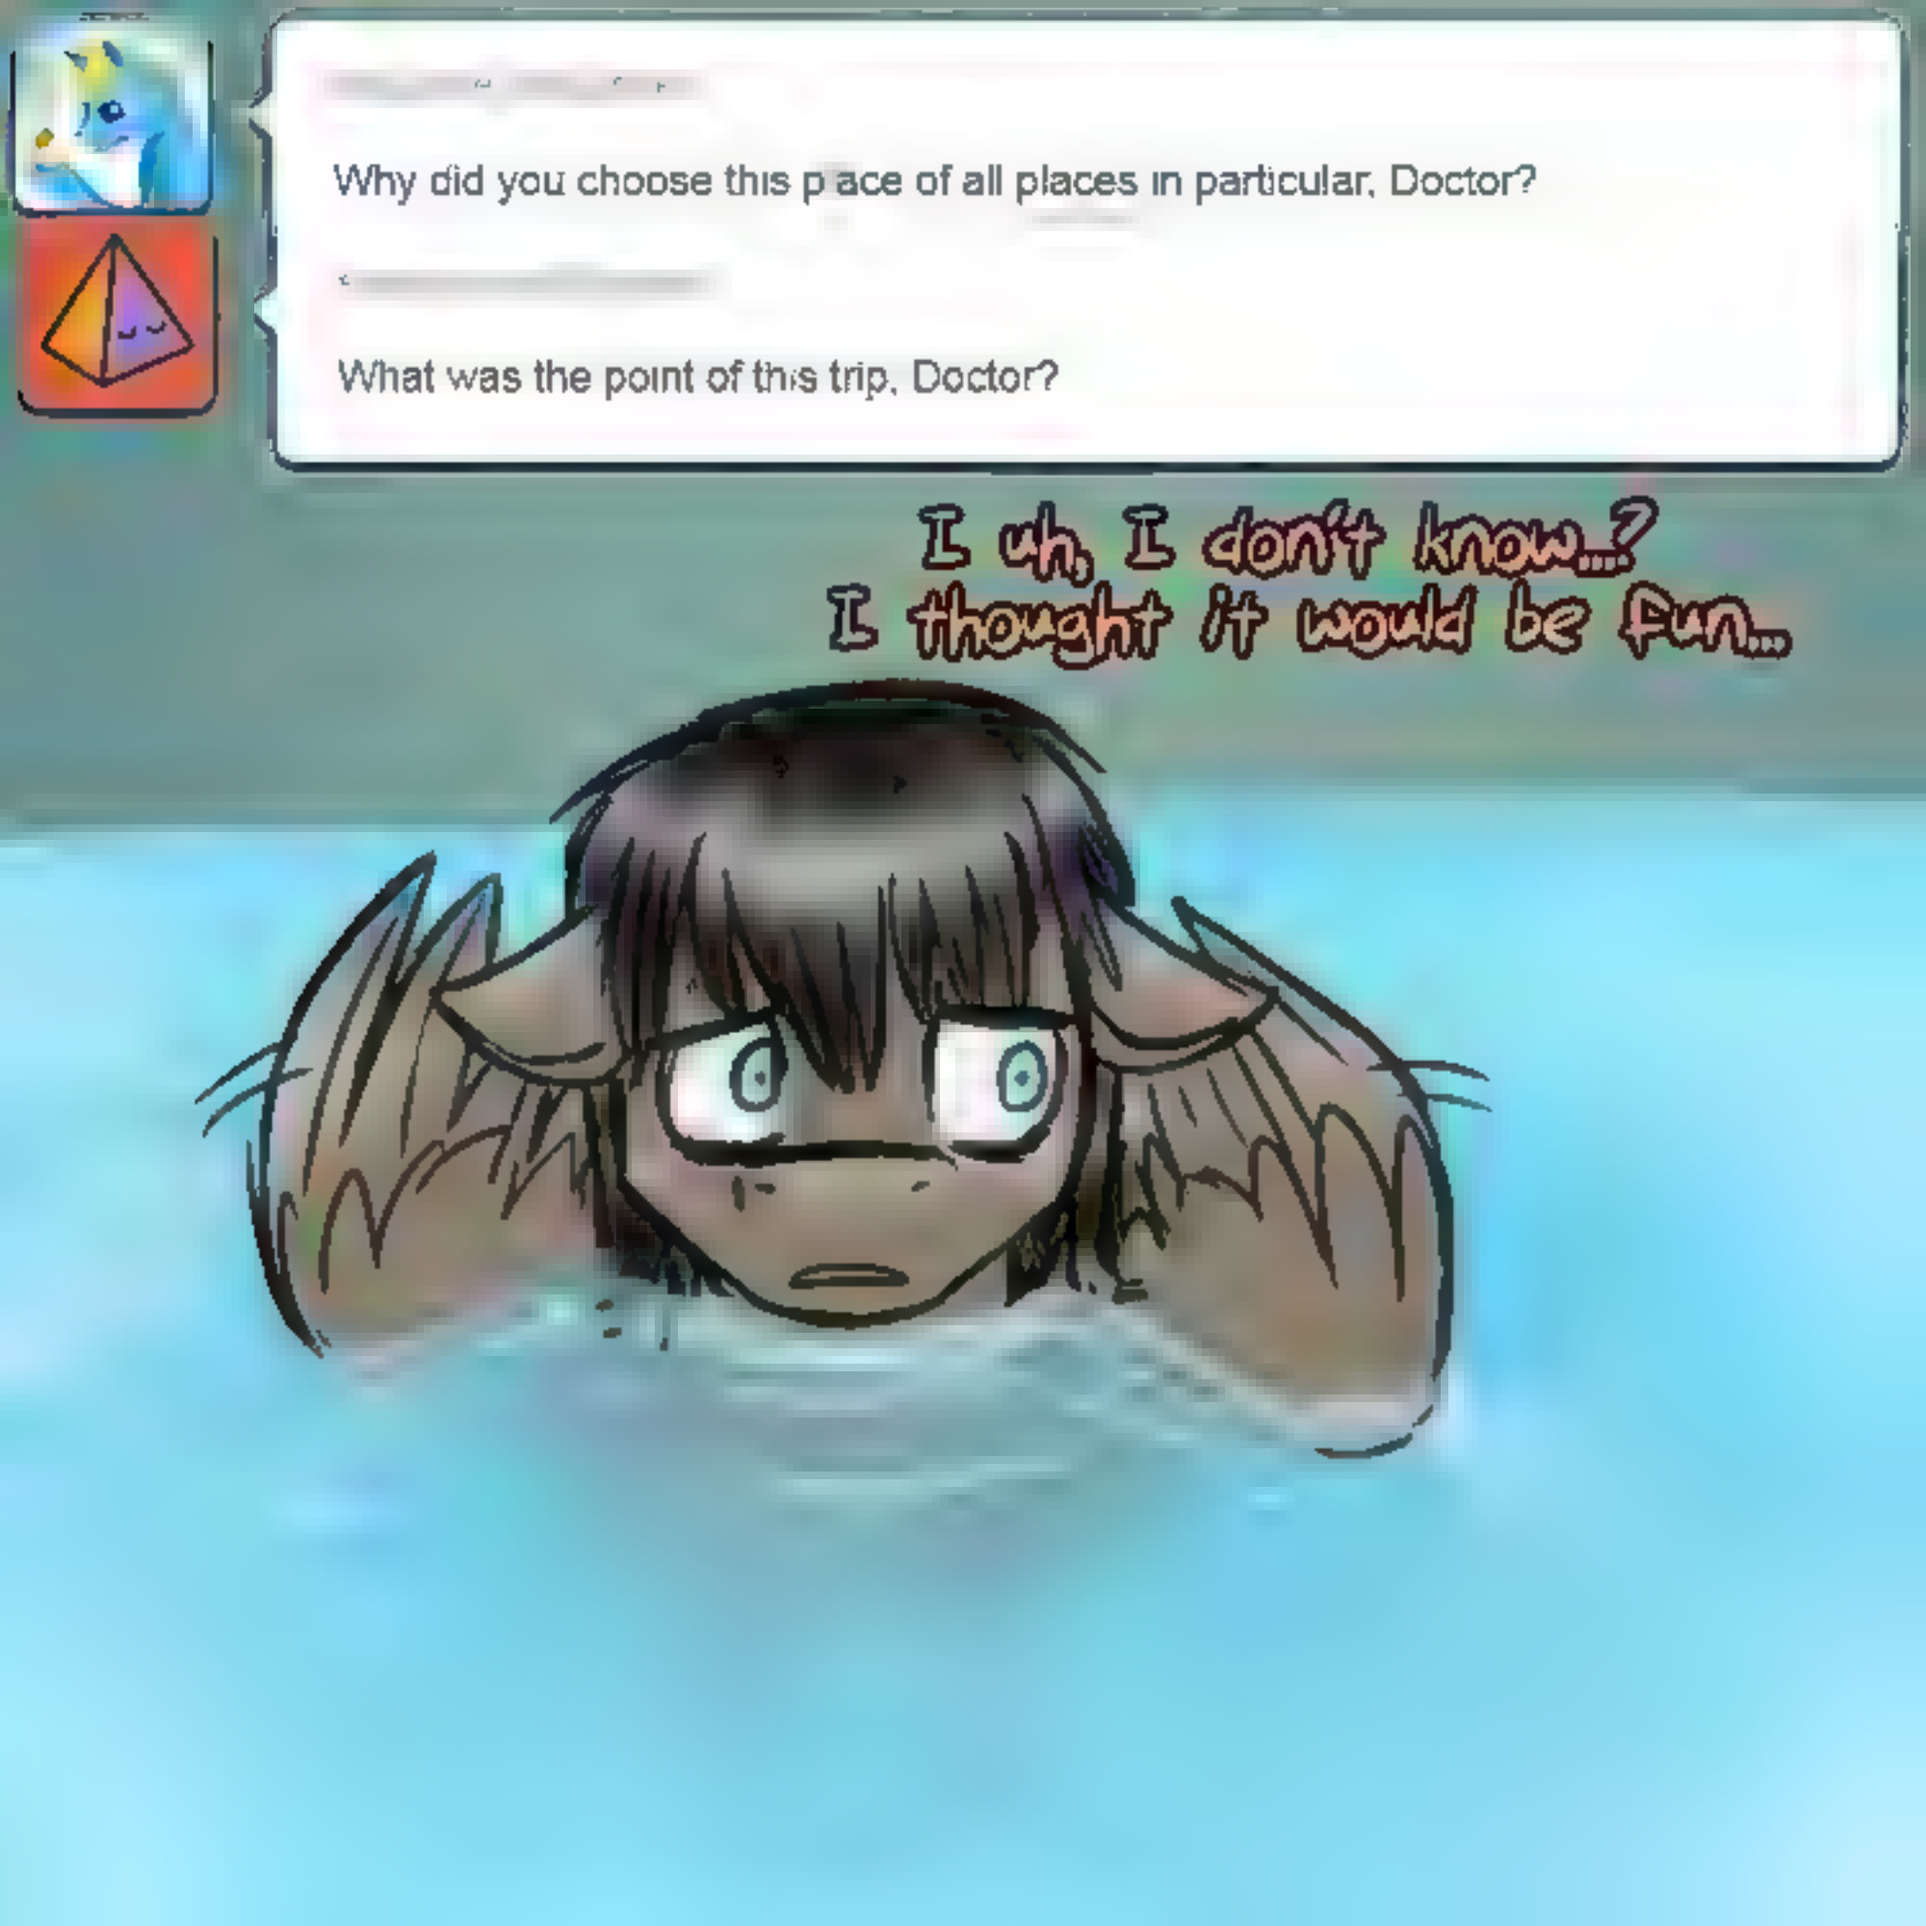
Jack don't you rea ize that something s not right with him!!!!!! I DO!
I've seen it since day one of being here.

Jack, don't you think it's a little odd how the Doctor went from so overly emotional and nearly spreading the discording to you one minute, and then being perfectly happy and taking you out here the next? It's too abrupt. Don't trust it. Something is going to go wrong unless you're vigilant.
Ugh, it's like when a shitty boyfriend buys you nice things to make up for being a complete ass.

Jack you're letting the Doctor have way too much free reign.
I'm trying to keep an eye on him...



Enjoying yourself, Doctor?
Shut up.
Swimming is weird.
Especially with wings.



Why did you choose this p ace of all places in particular, Doctor?
What was the point of this trip, Doctor?
I uh, I don't know...?
I thought it would be fun...

theimmortaldeath a
Hm I know you're probably having fun, Doctor But you have to know the line between fun and avoidance

Look, Jack!
I'm a duck!

My search for the Doctor, for answers, anything about what I had seen went on for a long time with no results.
I couldn't find a signal, I couldn't sense him like I used to.

I couldn't find any connections to him aside from very trace amounts of evidence that he'd once been there and done something.

I began to think that maybe I was going mad again, that my search was pointless.

And that's where my story truly begins.
My desperate madness to find the Doctor.
To do ANYTHING remotely new in what had become a dull and boring universe with no challenges.

-Sigh-

My mind isn't what it used to be, it seems...

Perhaps open communication will help somehow.

Back then... I was a fool.

Hello.

I am The Master, and I'm bored.
Ask me things, I'm tired of playing hide and seek right now and I need something to do in the meantime.

Perhaps you two should move onto the actual Casino section of Nimbus? I'm pretty sure you two would be great card sharks g ven one is older than a millennium and the other is a Professional conman

This is almost way too easy.
Still fun though.

EEAAAAAAA!!!

What the hell is that racket-?
EEK!
AAAAA!!!
OH SWEET CELESTIA!

Run! You have to get out of here, we have t-

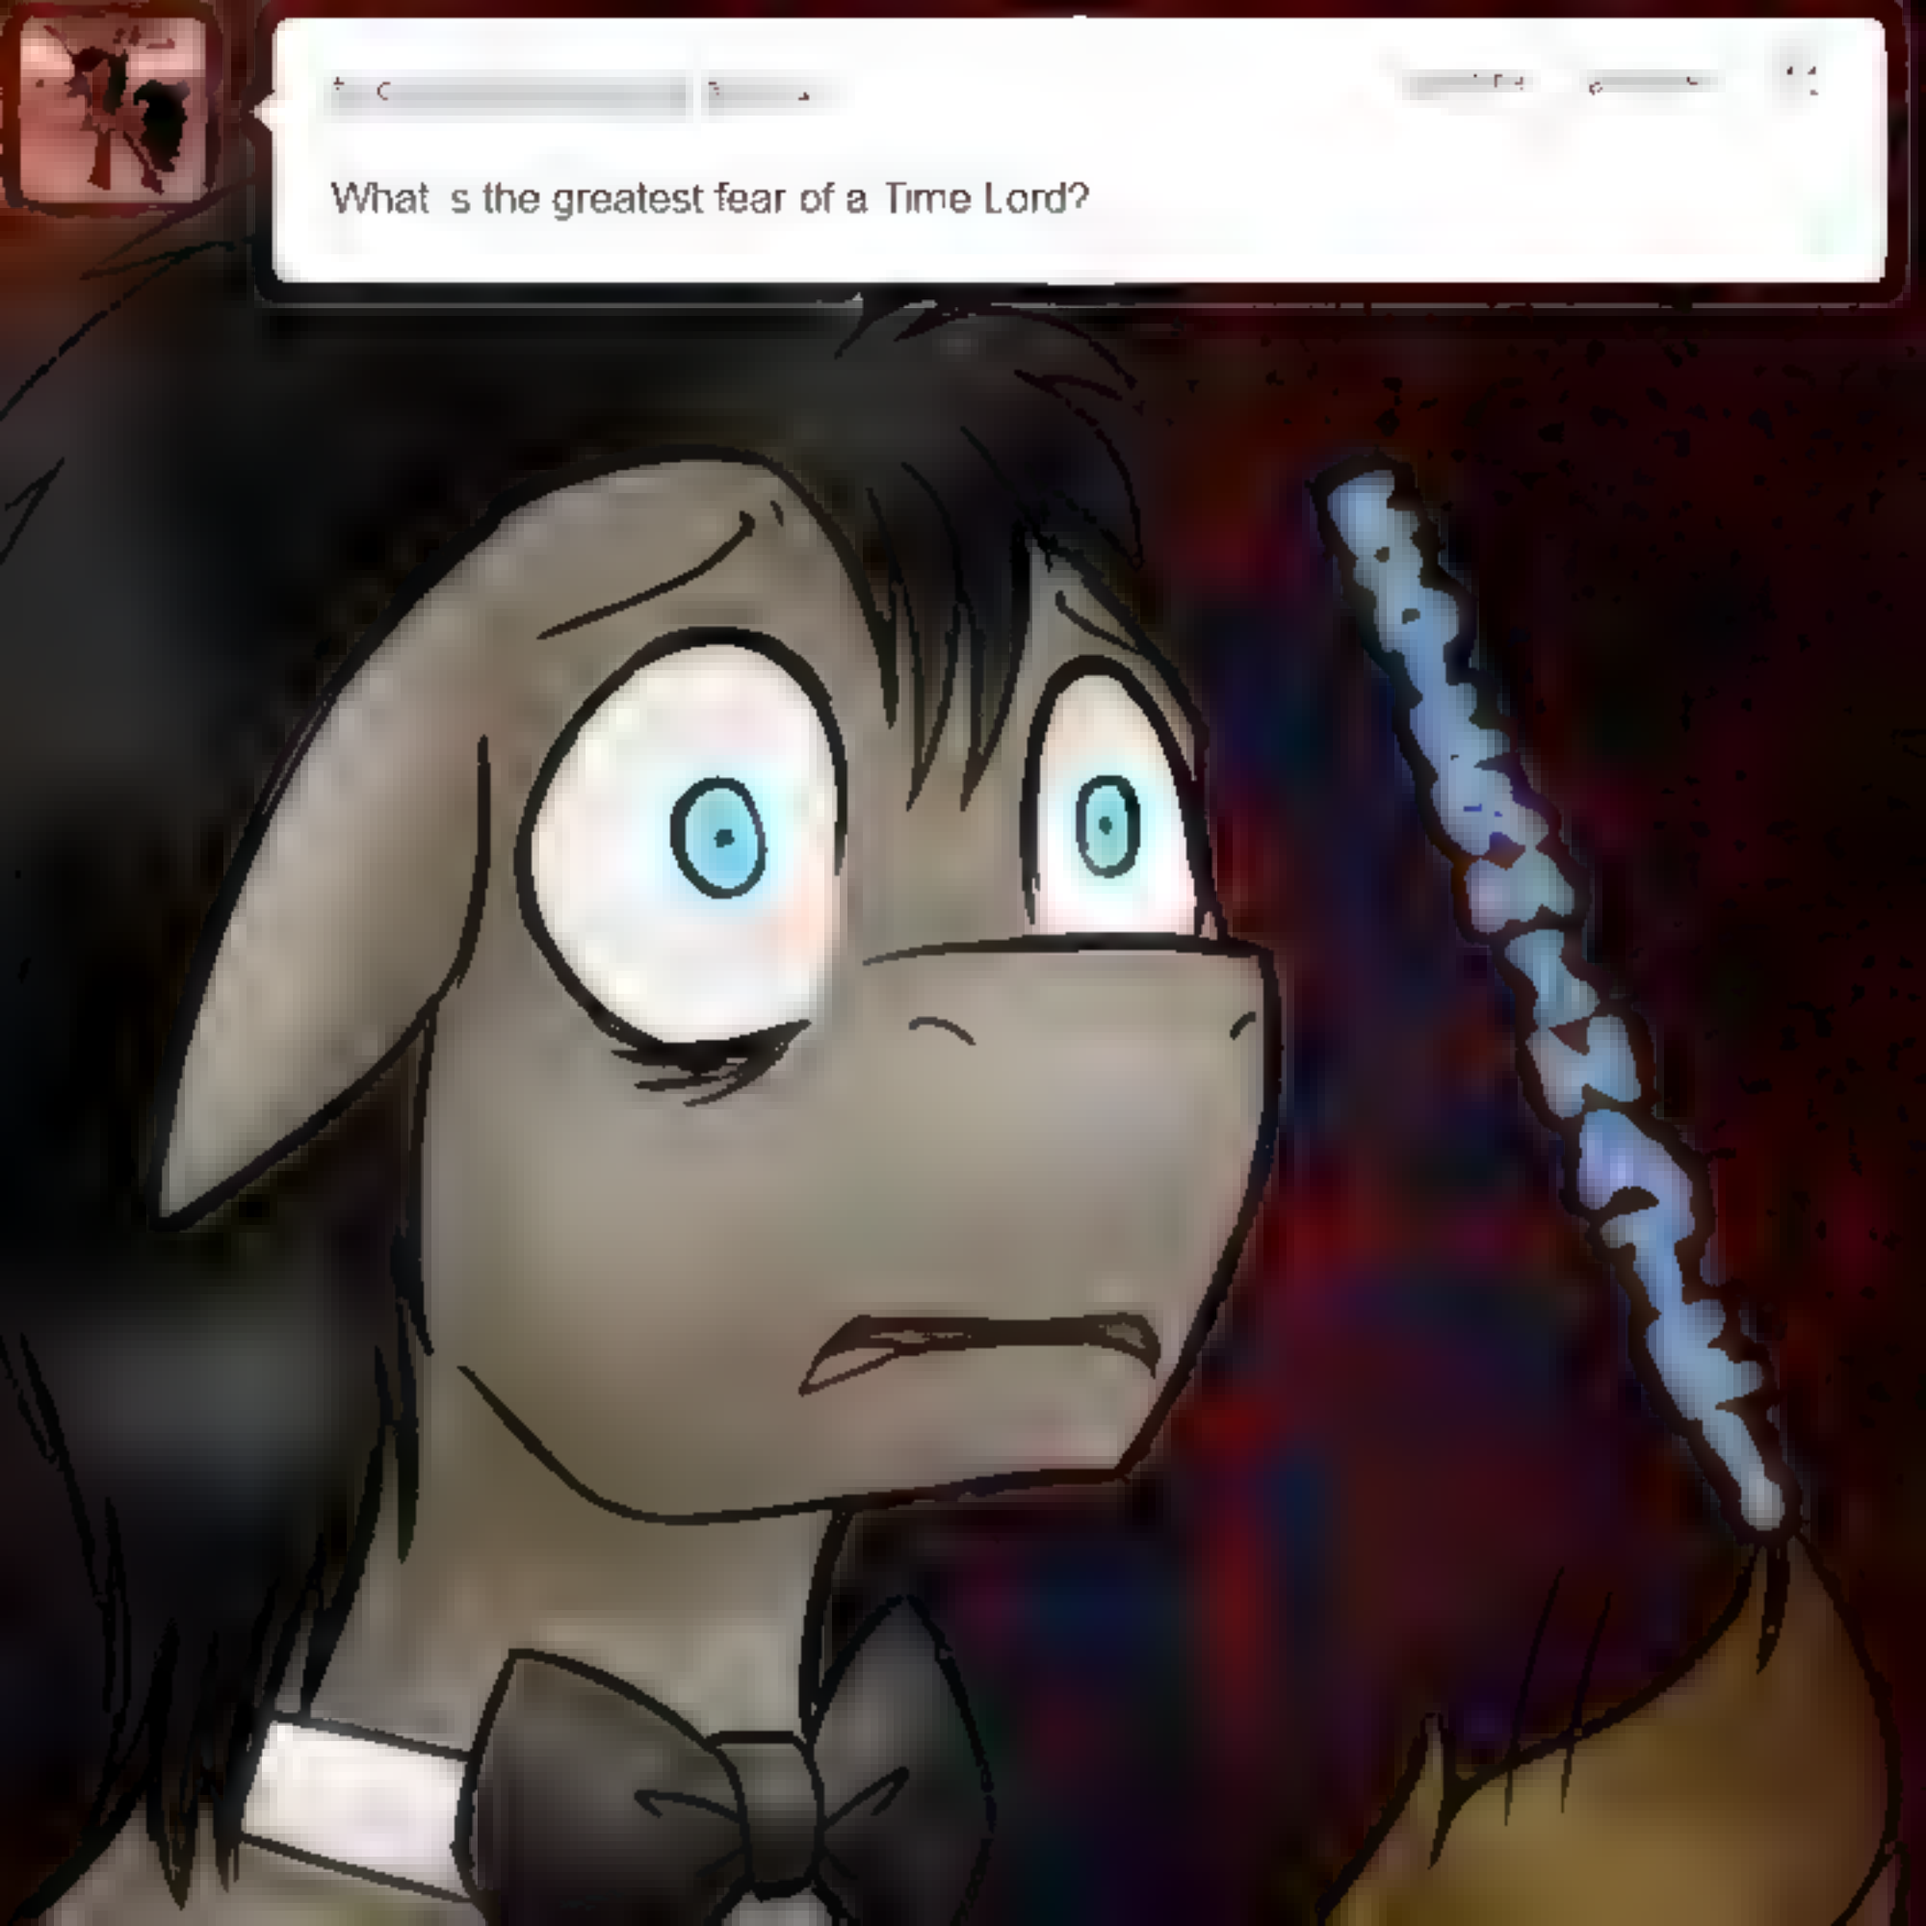
WHERE IN THE UNIVERSE WOULD YOU MOST LIKE TO GO?



What s the greatest fear of a Time Lord?

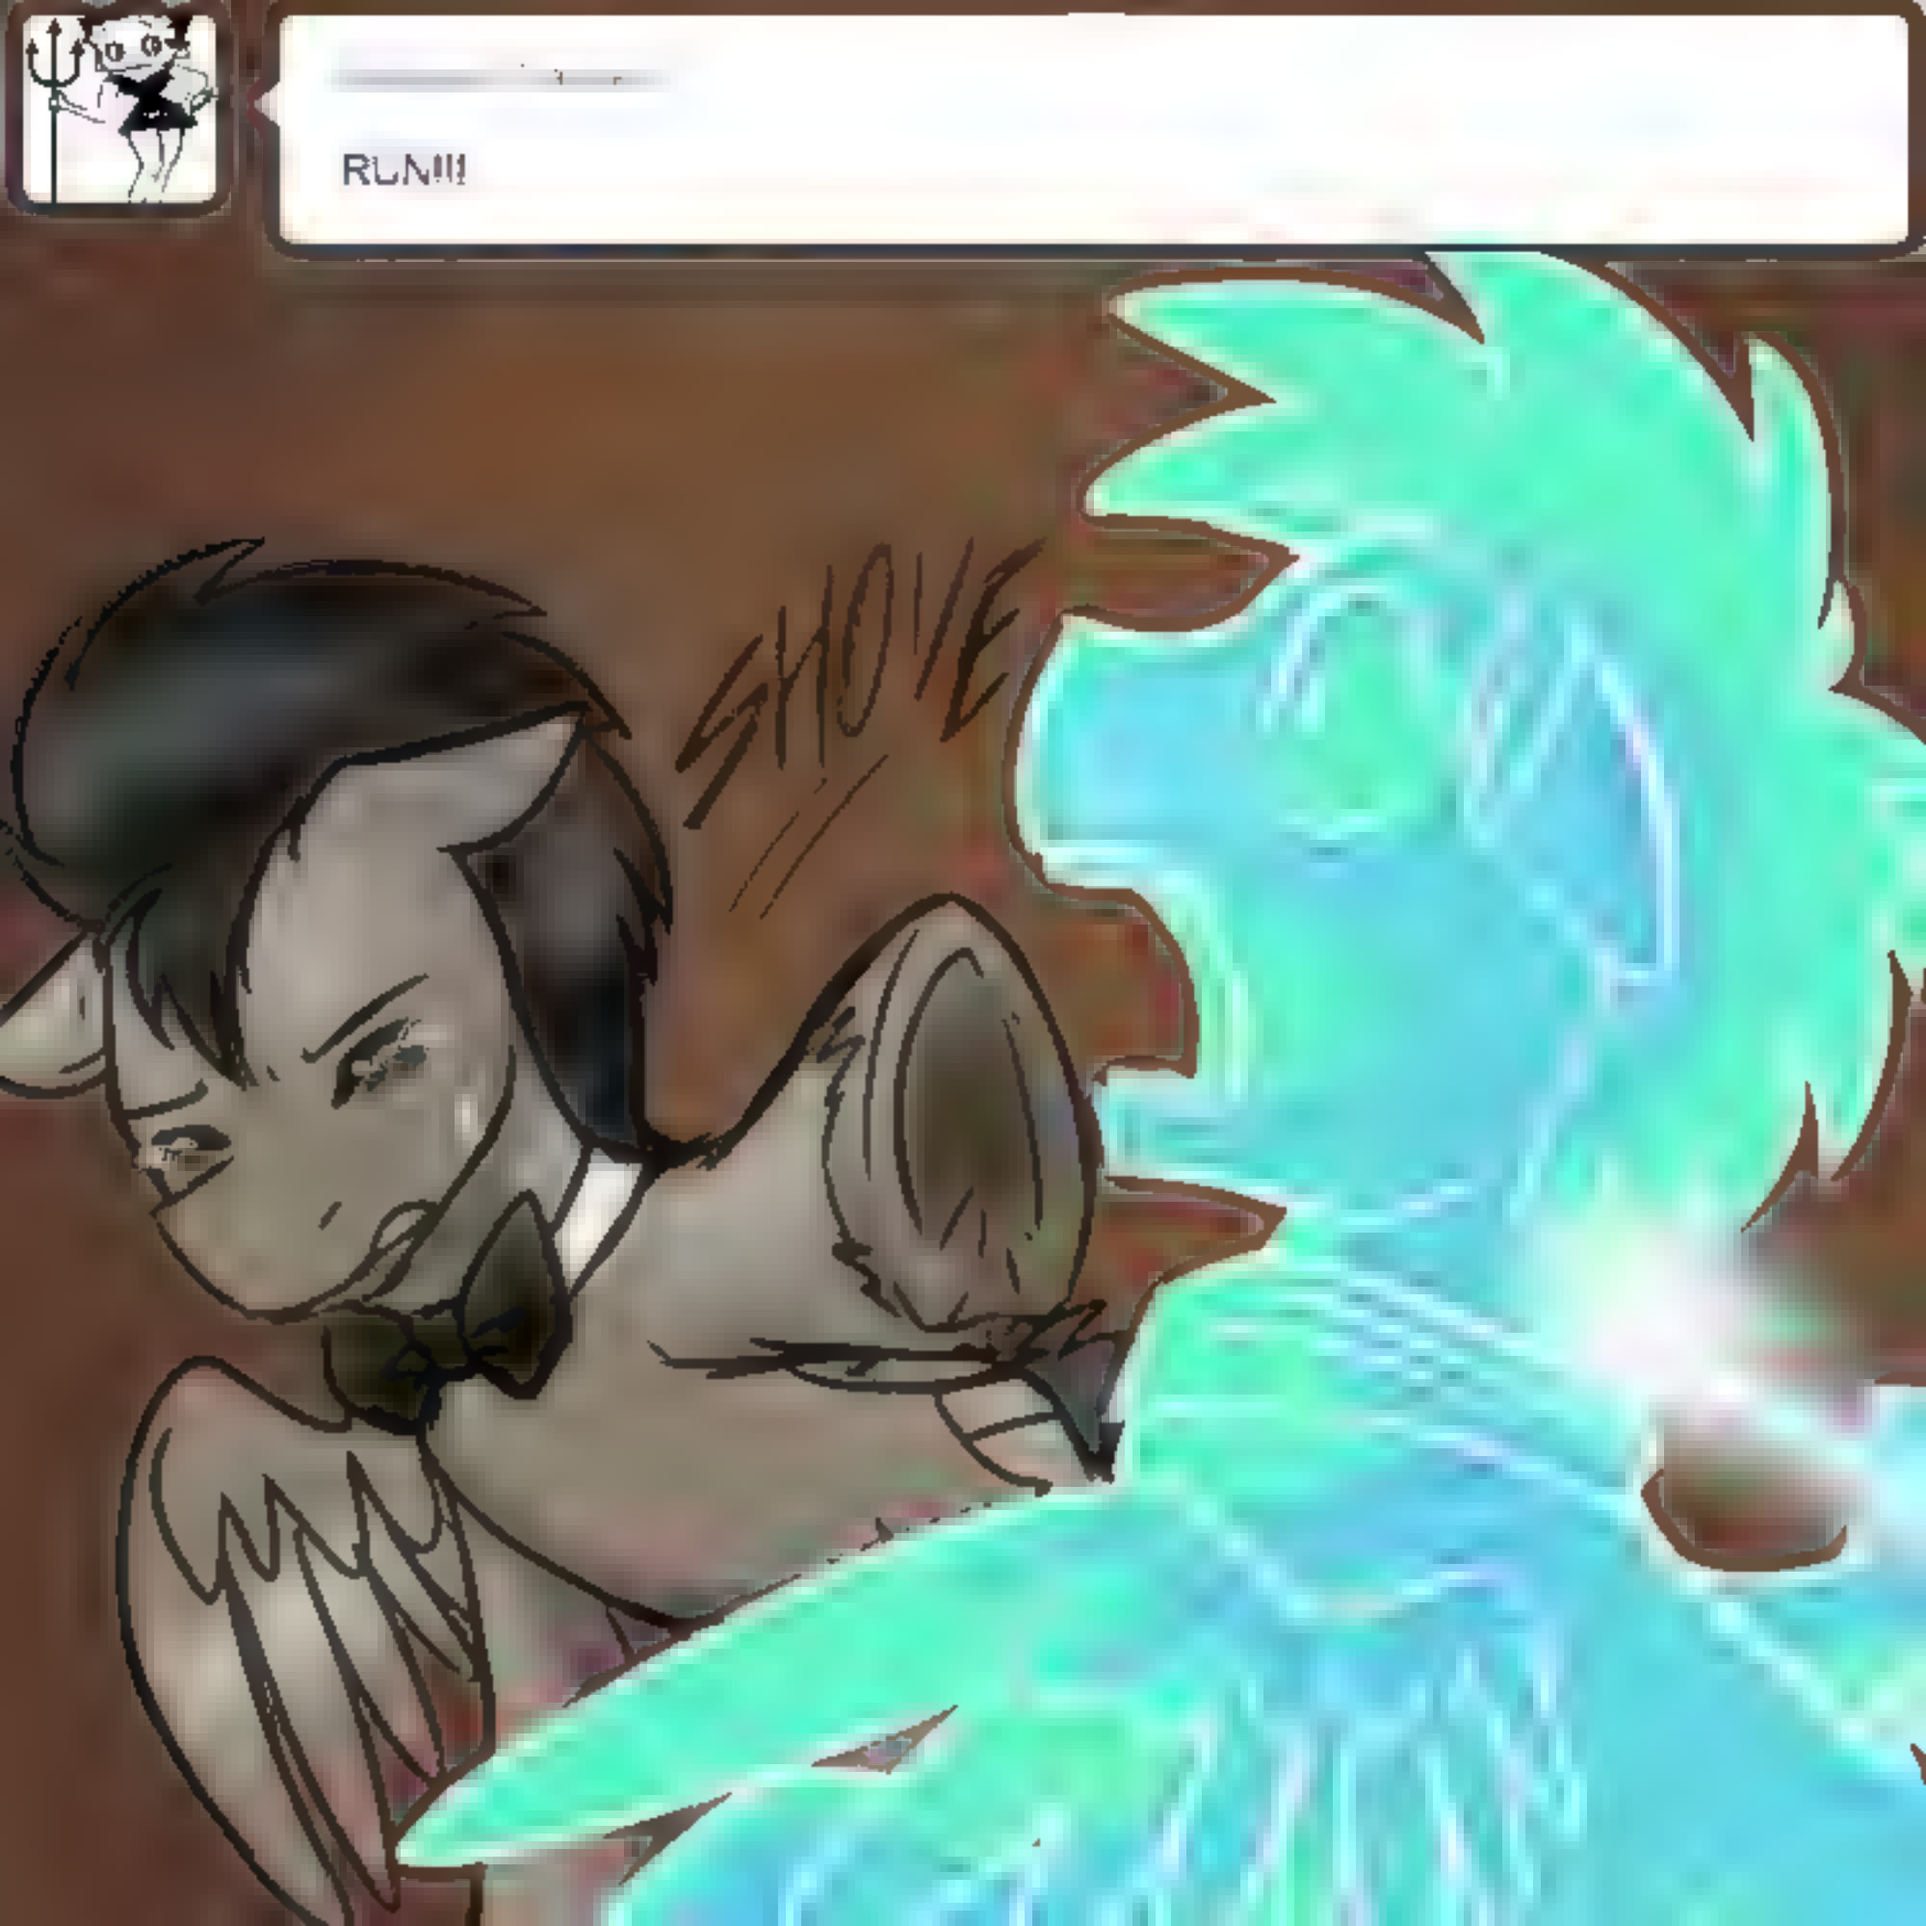
Umm doc are absolutely sure that nothing could have made it to this universe along with Jack?
Oh... Oh stars of Gallifrey... No...

Wait, Jack, the Da ek ships! The ones you were after! Who says that THEY d dn't surv.ve the trip through? They could st'l be out there!
I think we figured that out already!

Doctor, do we have anything to defend this place? Anything at all! We have to stop them!
I— I....

...No... W-we have to run.
B-back to the TARDIS...
WHAT?!

Doctor, this isn't what you do, this-
EXTERMINATE!



RUN!!!
SHOVE

D-Doctor...

What would you do if the Doctor betrayed you?
?!?!

Um I don't think now's rea ly the time to re ax I'm pretty sure some Daleks may have sneaked their way into th s dimens on along with Jack Remember what Jack was doing in the first place ?
This is all my fault...!

How could you?

Oh, my it's always like this, isn't it?

EXTERMINATE
You remember now?
The reason you continued Torchwood...?

It was because of all the times he was never there. You defended what he failed to protect.

Remember the children?
What you had to do because he never came?

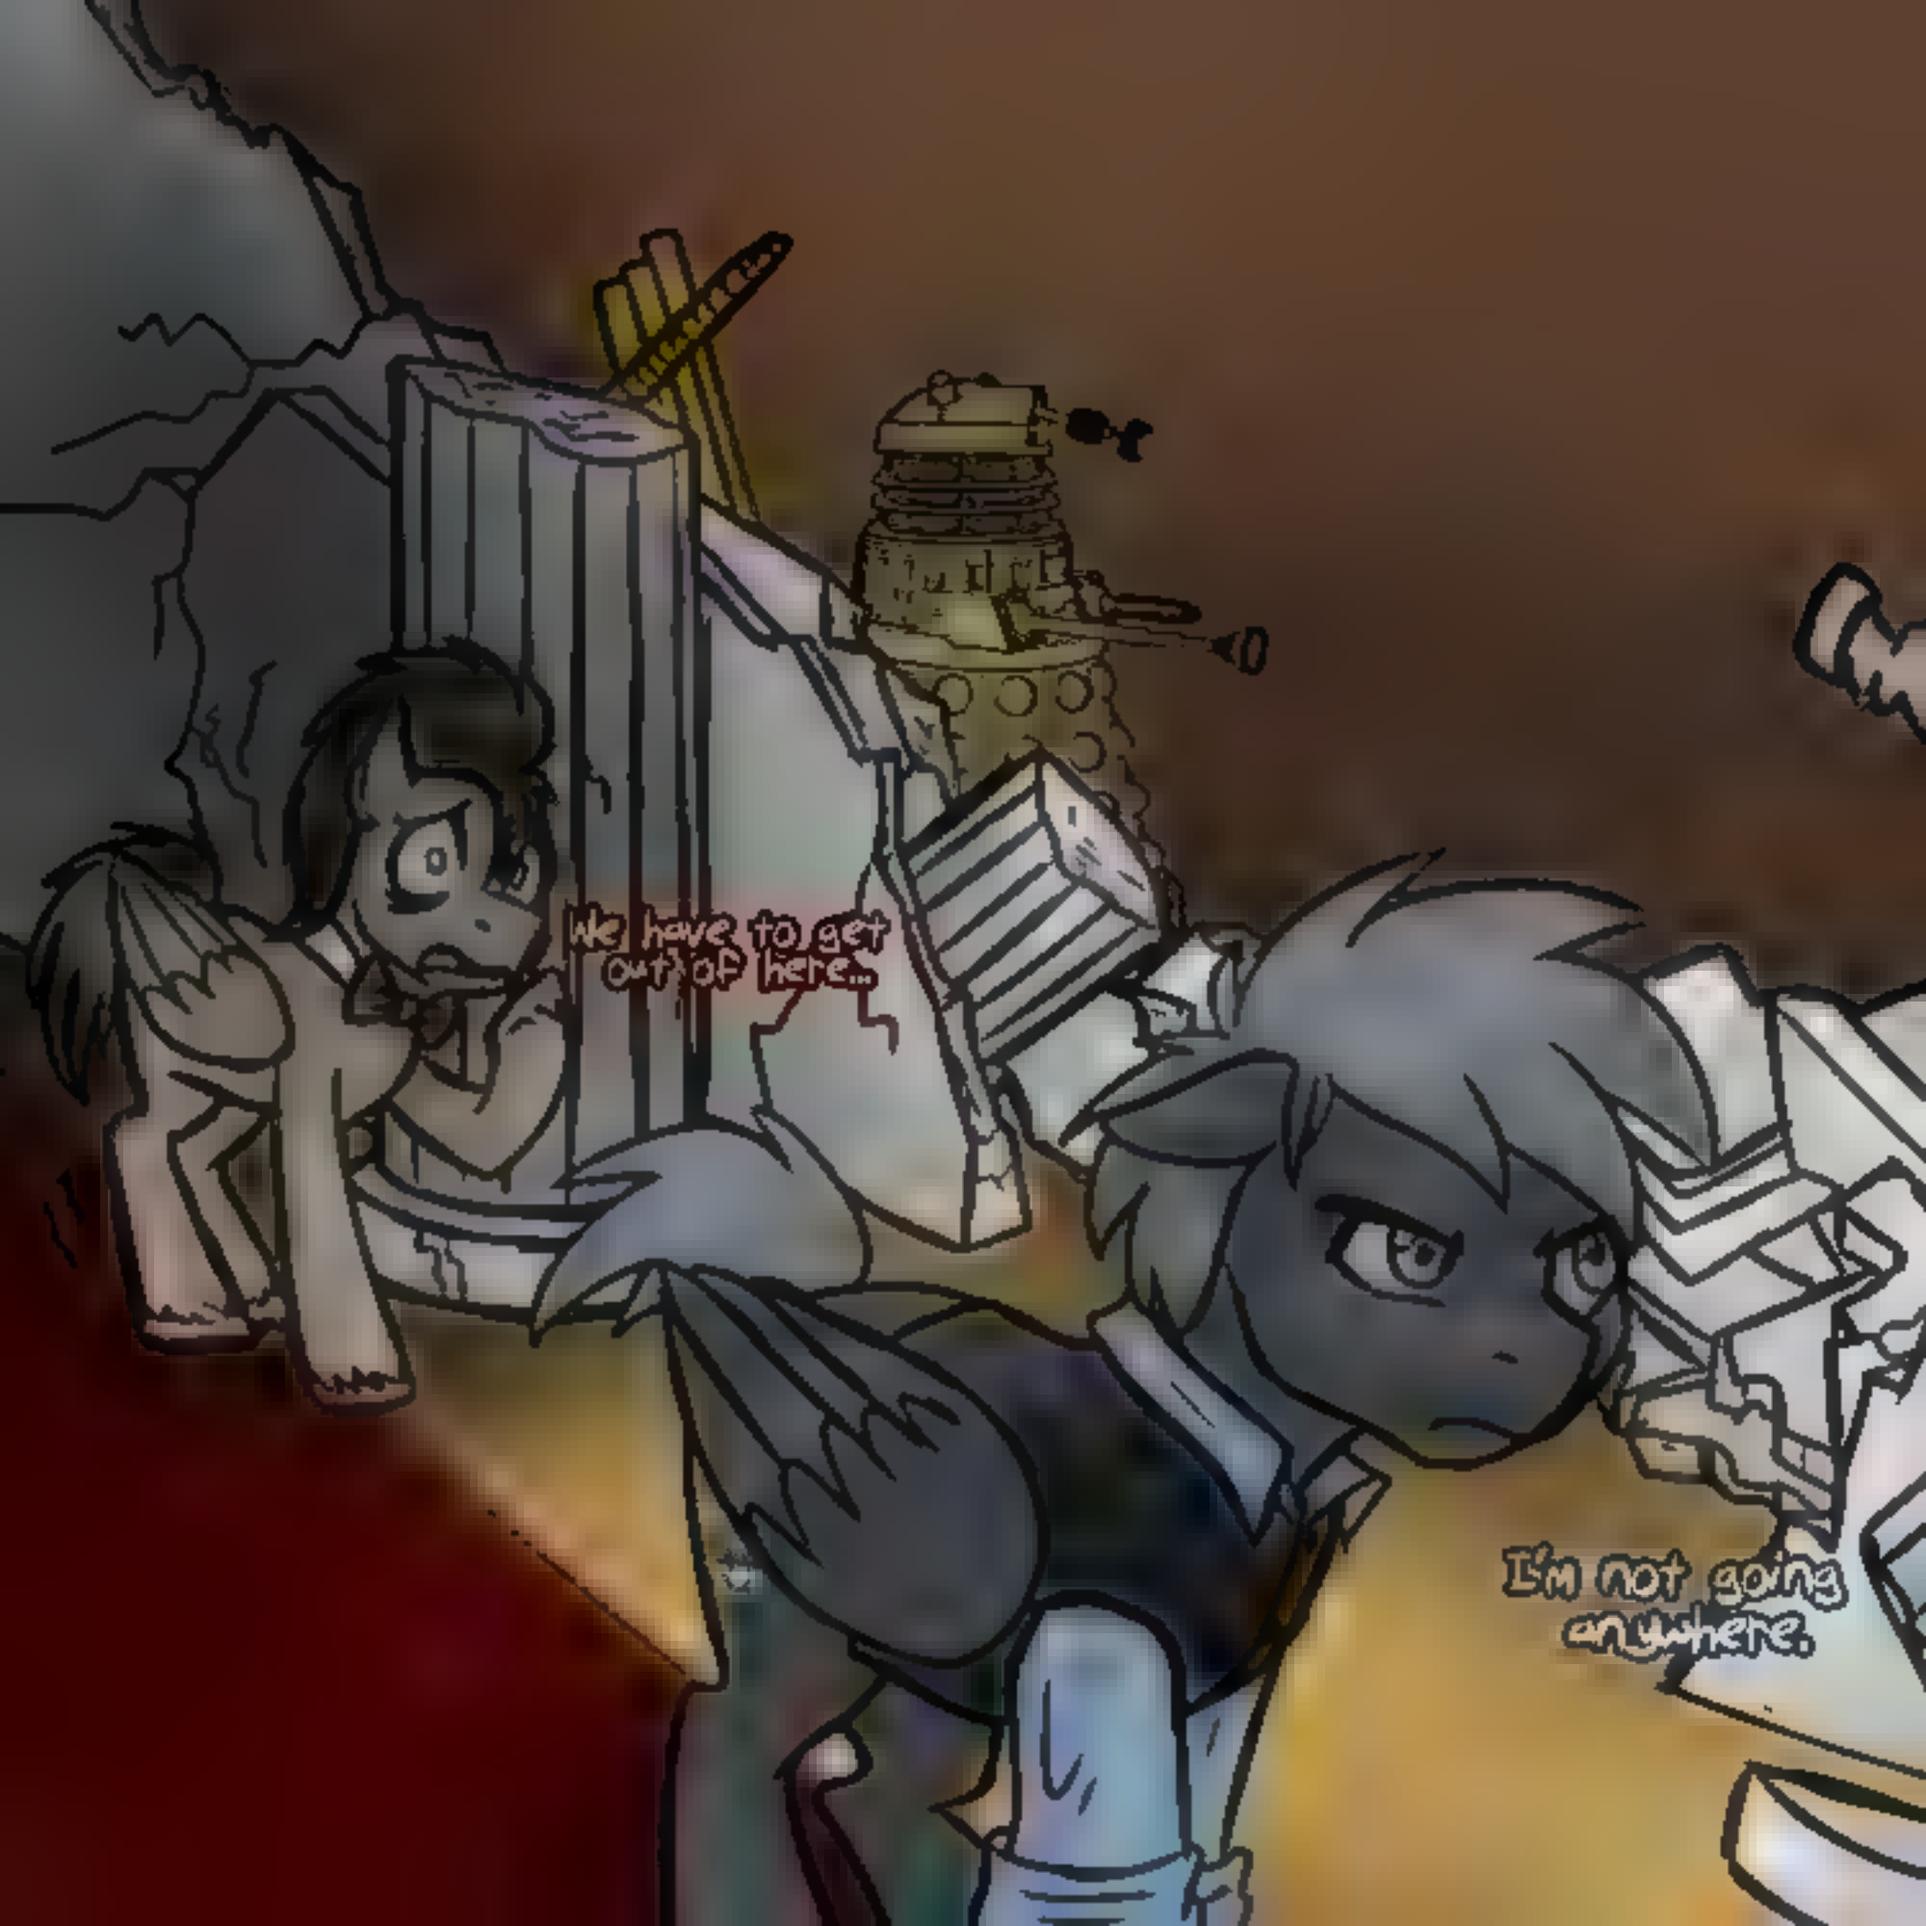
And now it's happening again.

Hey discord if your read ng this do you th nk you can kick it up a notch cause I love your work You turning pon es discorded and that's why your my favorite )
I think you should reconsider where your lies, Jack Darkness.

Get the hell off me...!
J-Jack...

SEARCH FOR ANY SURVIVORS AND EXTERMINATE THEM!
OBEY!



We have to get out of here...
I'm not going anywhere.

I wont allow trash in MY universe...
WEEK
who-

Mmf?!
Shh!

EXTERMINATE!

Hey Master, remember the Daleks? Not the ones from this universe that you completely annihilated, your Daleks. Yeah. How would you feel about them making it into this universe? I hope you aren't too opposed to the prospect because we may have some bad news Still the same, pathetic roaches you always were.

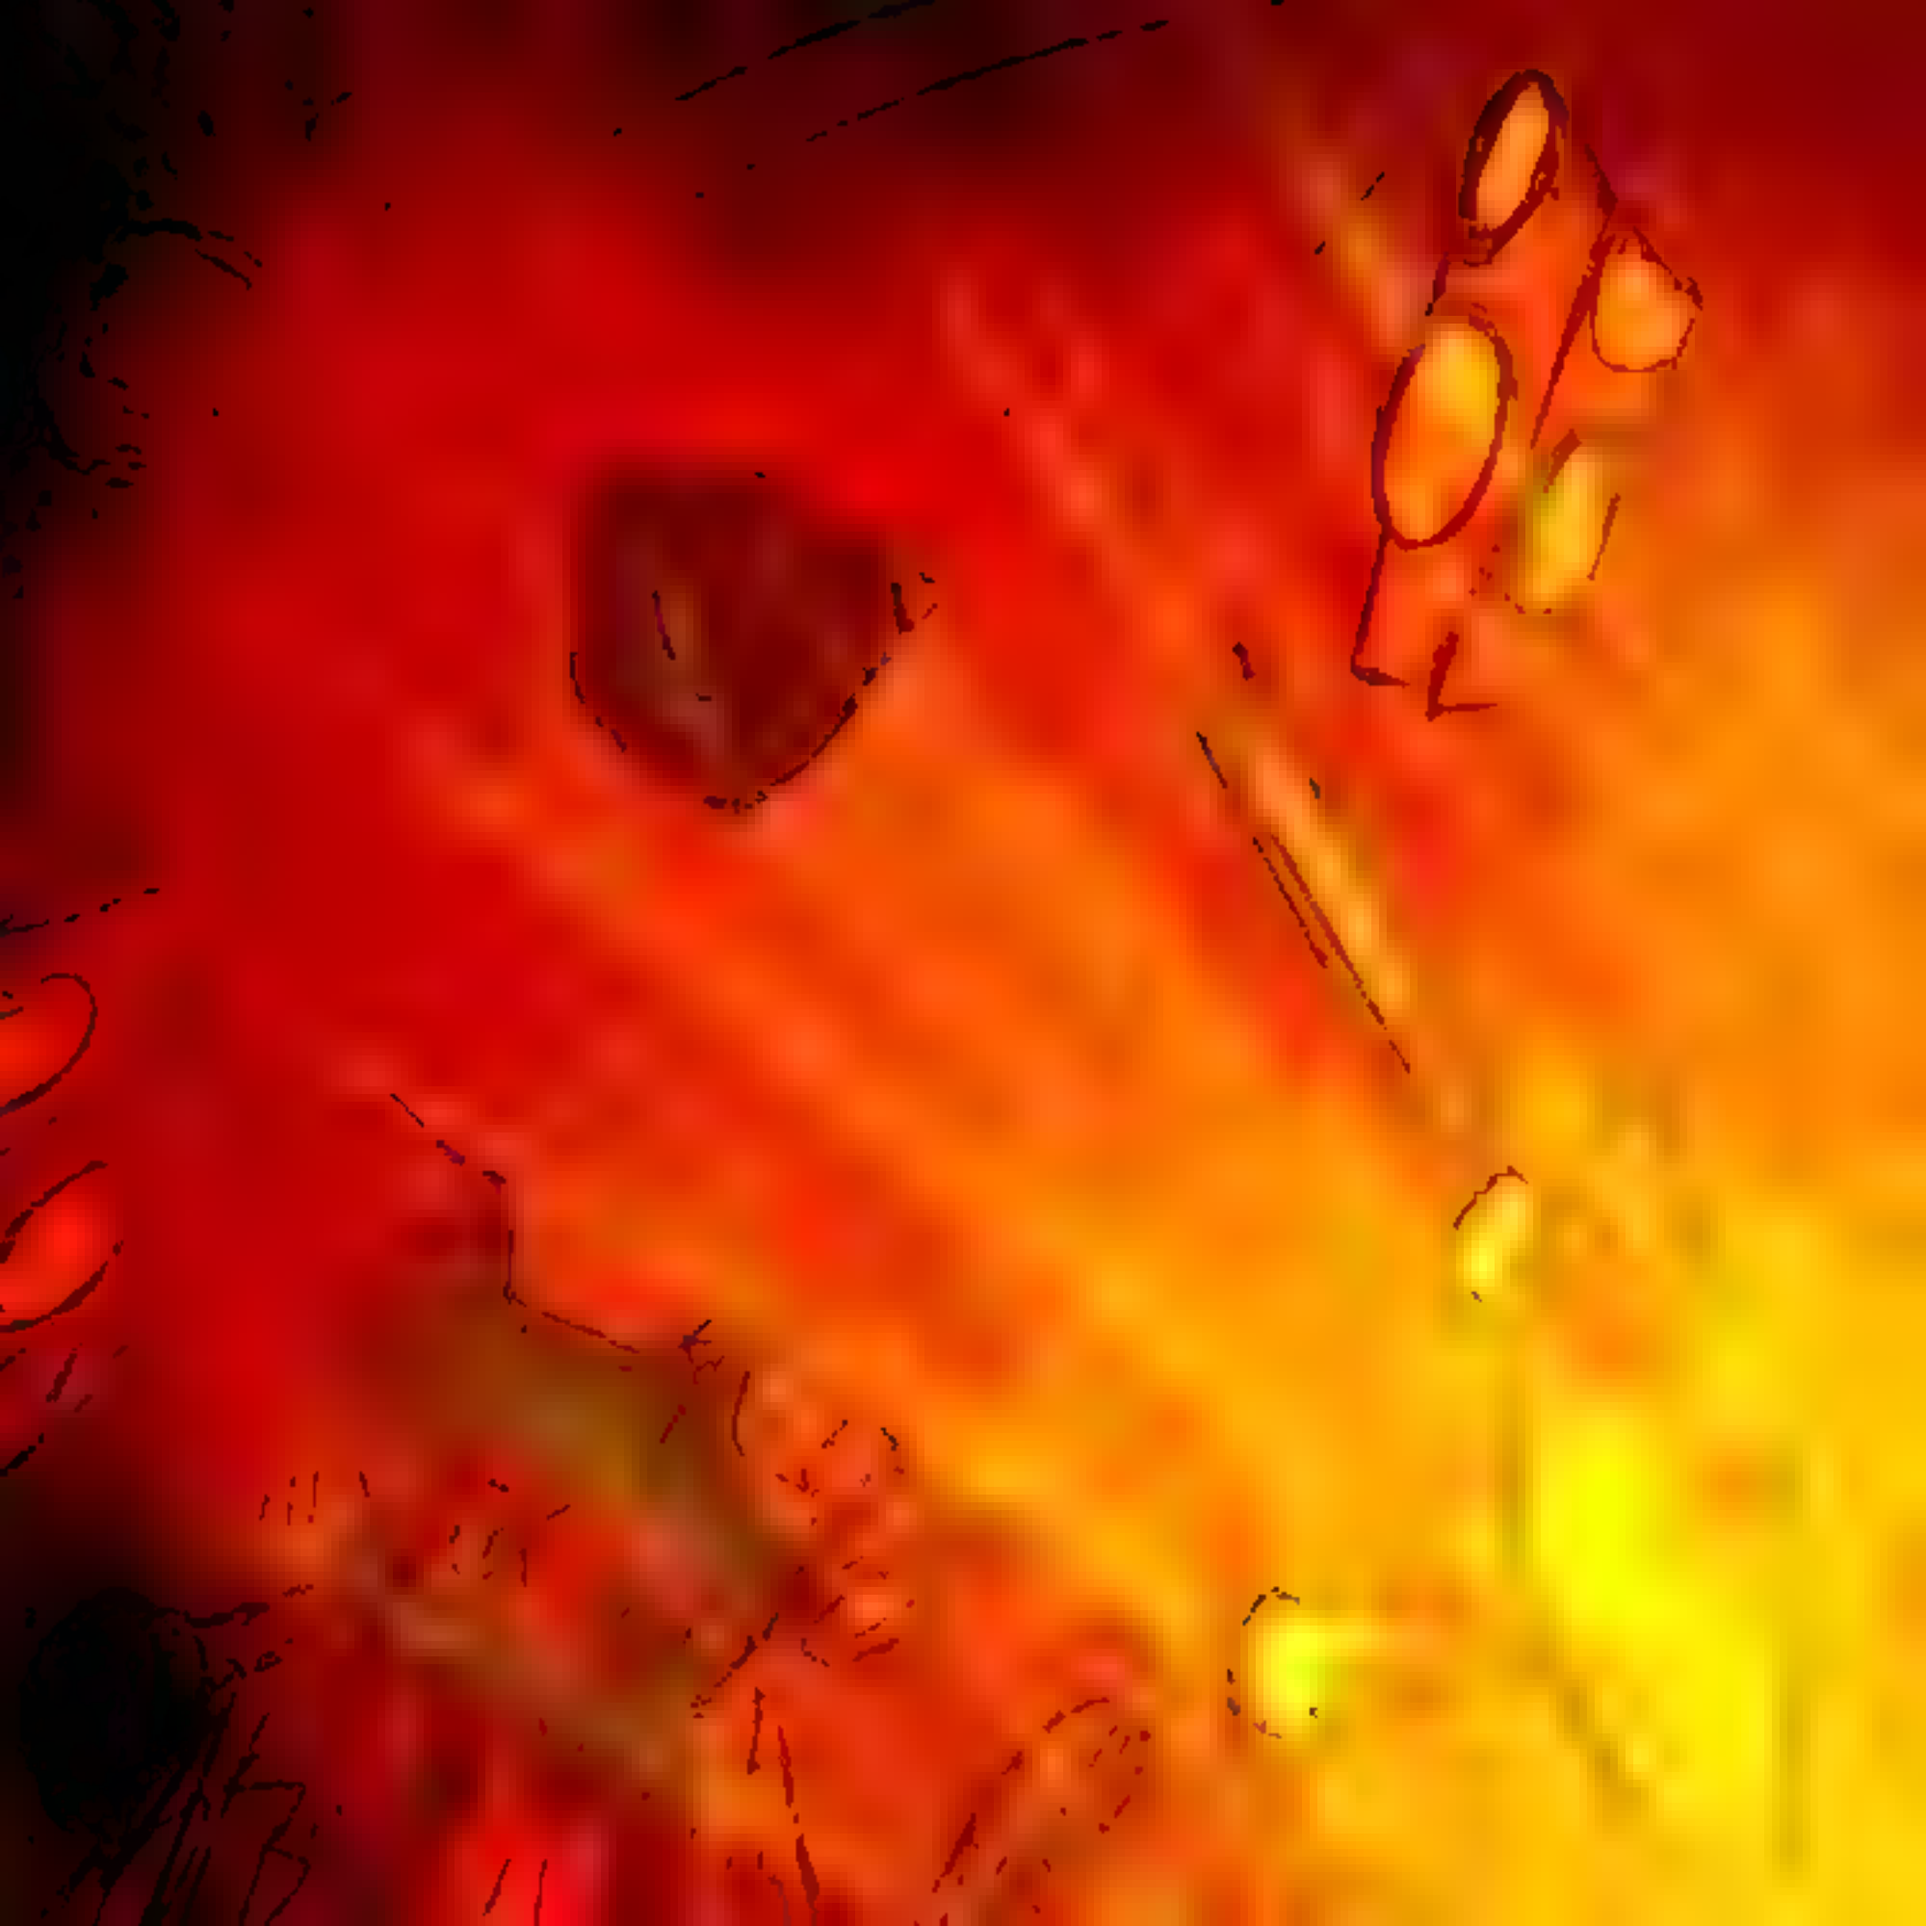
DESTROY HIM!

EXTERMINATE!
EXTERMINATE!



This universe is mine,
and I don't allow vermin to live here.

Like any good doctor I don't allow parasitic viruses to infect my living healthy universe „Run.

Boom
Well seems ke the Master has th s all under contro in a sense of words
Time to go home

Th-there...
No more Nimbus, or Daleks, or...
Him...

isn t it strange that the daleks are in the same form i mean not everything needs to be a pony but wouldn t it change a little ?
They're mutated abominations in shells, why would they change?

Doctor, you HAVE to do something! Both the Daleks AND The Master!! I don't care what you've become, you're still THE DOCTOR!
I AM doing something! You know what that is? RUNNING.

The purple aura thingy that emmaned from The Master, what was it?
Wha- WHATTHEHE[illegible]!!?? Th-th-with the fire, and the lasers, and the explosions and the MAGIC!! WHAT IS WITH THE MAGIC!!?? WHEN DID HE LEARN HOW TO DO MAGIC!? WHAT'S GOING ON!!
Arcane magic, I believe.
I've heard of zebras using it... So he's been around, it seems...

Did.. did I just see that correctly? The Master killed the daleks, spared your life, and called himself a doctor at the same time? I know you're scared right now Doctor but it might help to look into things this time instead of just ignoring it.
He only called himself that to spite me!

Doctor is it just me or is the Master standing up more for Equestria than you are? What happened to you caring about what happened to Twilight and all that?
Didn't any of you pay attention?! He was simply taking out the trash for his own gain!

Damn, the Master just saved you and Jack e Boy How does that make you feel
The Master seemed to save you from that situation Any idea as to why?
'Save?!' That monster was taunting me! I'm sure he would have killed us if we stayed any longer!
He seemed pretty calm to me.

We're still all wondering why you shoved Jack into the Da eks deathray

Jack, may I remind you that the Doctor murdered you? It wasn't an accident or a friendly nudge, he murdered you Yeah, traitor, mind explaining yourself?

It was to be expected But Jack How do you feel?
Betrayed.
I- I didn't mean to, I was scared-
I-- I- You can't die anyways,
I didn't think it mat-You're disgusting.

Jack please, PLEASE don't hurt the Doctor! I know it may seem like he's hurting everyone else and is a coward but remember he's the one hurting too!
"Hurting" and using his friend as a shield to run away are two completely different things.
One is unforgivable.

Doctor, the way Jack is now he won't be willing to cooperate The best you can do for him now is to either find a way to fix him or to find a place for him to stay for a while until he comes back to his senses.
Jack, let's just --calm down, we can fix this, how about we have a drink and--

Jack? You gonna let the Doctor push you around? Stallion up! Leap to act on!
YOU can't fix ANYTHING! You never have, and never will! I've lived long enough to know you NEVER make an effort to fix things, you just get thrown in by your TARDIS who is so disappointed in you that she has to FORCE you to go where there are problems so you can solve them! And now you won't even do that!

I found a Cookie.
Jack! Did you recognize who that was?
Yeah, Doctor, enlighten me, tell me who you've been keeping a secret from me from your own mouth.
I... I can't...

Jack, that's the Master! The Doctor won't fight him .n his current state but I m sure you could
I can't believe it. You know what that bastard has done! You kept it from me that he was alive, and worse, you LET him continue to do whatever the hell he wants!

Jack. This is the sniveling, wretched pile that was once the doctor. Watch as he pisses himself running from the person who took responsibility for this universe. Yes, that's right, the Master is acting like more of a guardian then the doctor. Isn't this place fascinatingly bass-ackwards? Is being with the doctor really where you want to be?
You're not the Doctor any more. You're not my friend. You're NOTHING.

Jack, if you could go back, would you?

We're going home.
And if you refuse,
I'm finding a way back myself.

The good times have ended, Doctor. Your friend... isn't himself anymore. I'm sorry. I'm so sorry Jack, what happens if the Doctor just wants to keep you trapped here forever? Would you fight him if it came down to it? What if that was the only way out?

I'm not going to be your prisoner any more, Doc. So go on, take us out of here.

J-Jack
I can't,
I really can't!
There's no way for me--

I think it's time Jack
I'm not in the mood to fuck around right now, you damn well know there's a way back and if you don't use it I'll find it without you!

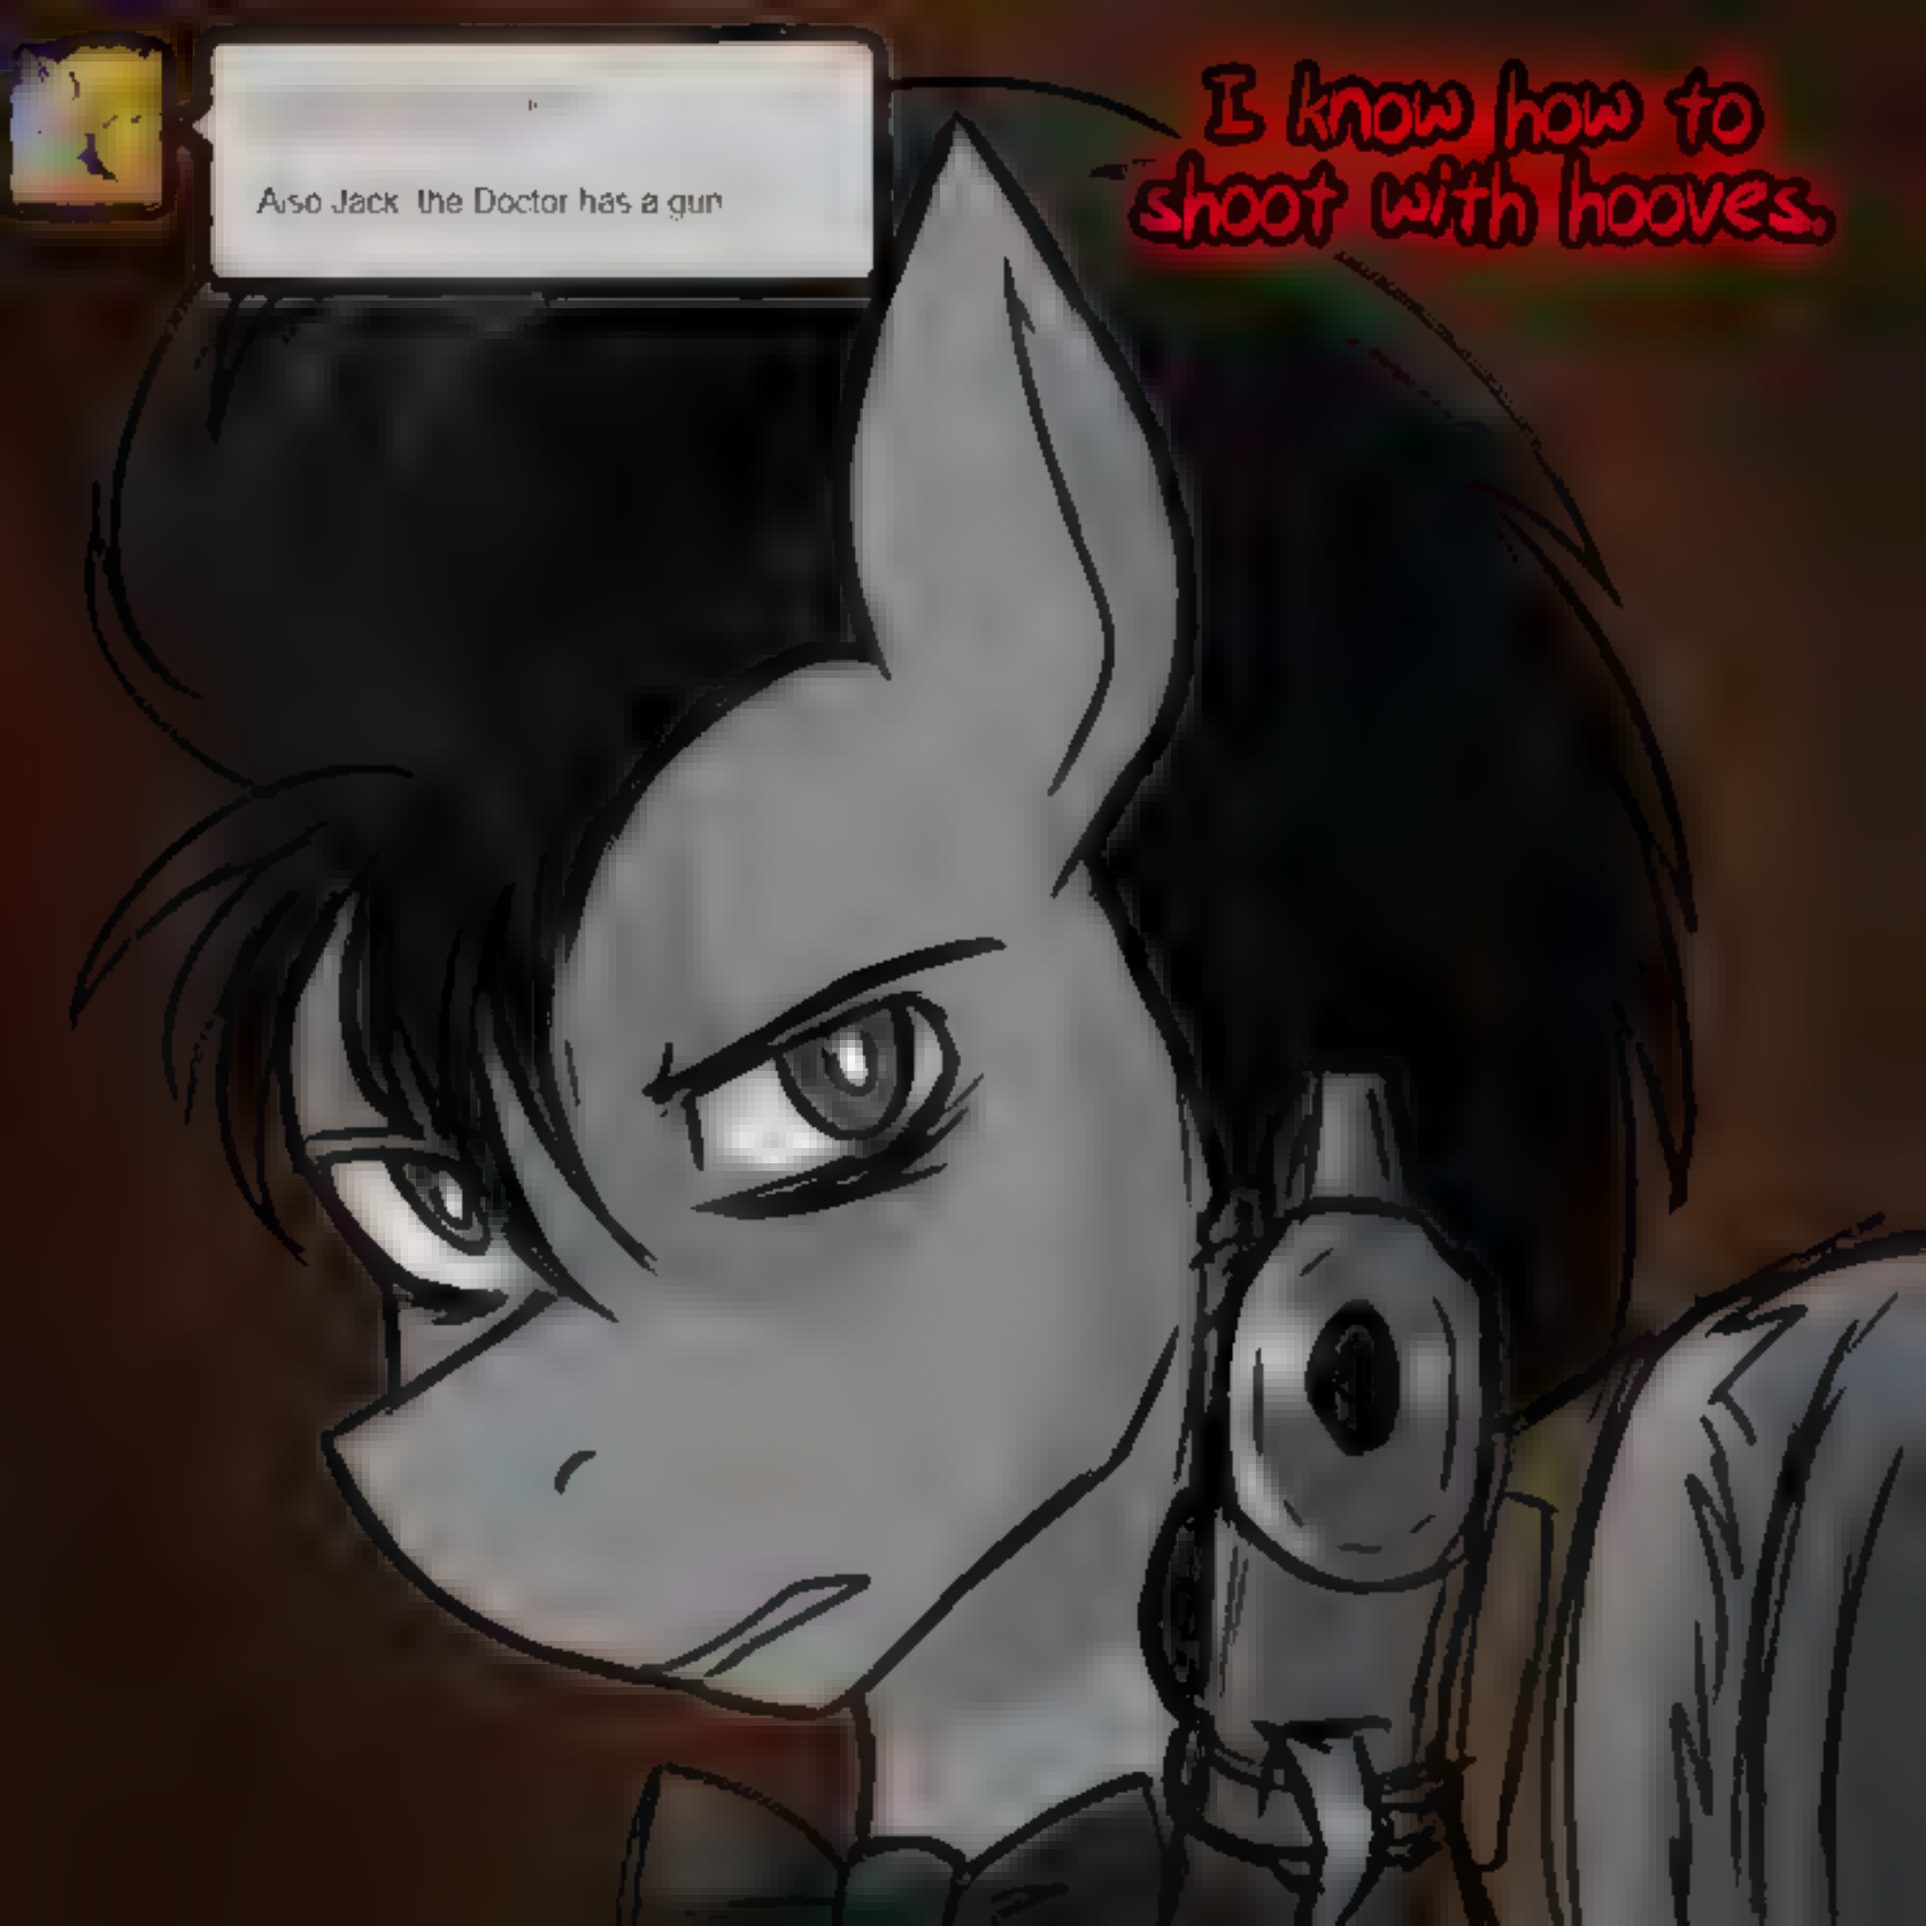
Doesn't Jack remind you of your past? Of all you've lost before you came here? Jenny, Adric, Amy and Rory  you left that all behind  If you're trying to run away from you past, keeping him around won't help.

We'll be there soon...
That's more like it!
VWOORP
VWOORP

So, just past these doors is what's left over of the wormhole I came through in, right?

Jack... There is a big difference between you and me that you should know...
..What?

Hey, Jack. What would you do if the Doctor decided he didn't want you there anymore? Hmm? What if he decided to throw you out, get rid of you, and go back to being apathetic to the universe as a whole? Hehehehe



Aso Jack the Doctor has a gun
I know how to shoot with hooves.

If you were given a gun who would you shoot first?

I thought you would be different.
But you're not.

I know you can still hear me, so listen well.

I don't care about anything.
Not about the Master, you, myself, or the universe.

In fact,
I think
I'd rather enjoy watching you and everything burn with it.

POLICE PUBLIC CALL BOX
BLAM!

POLICE PUBLIC CALL BOX

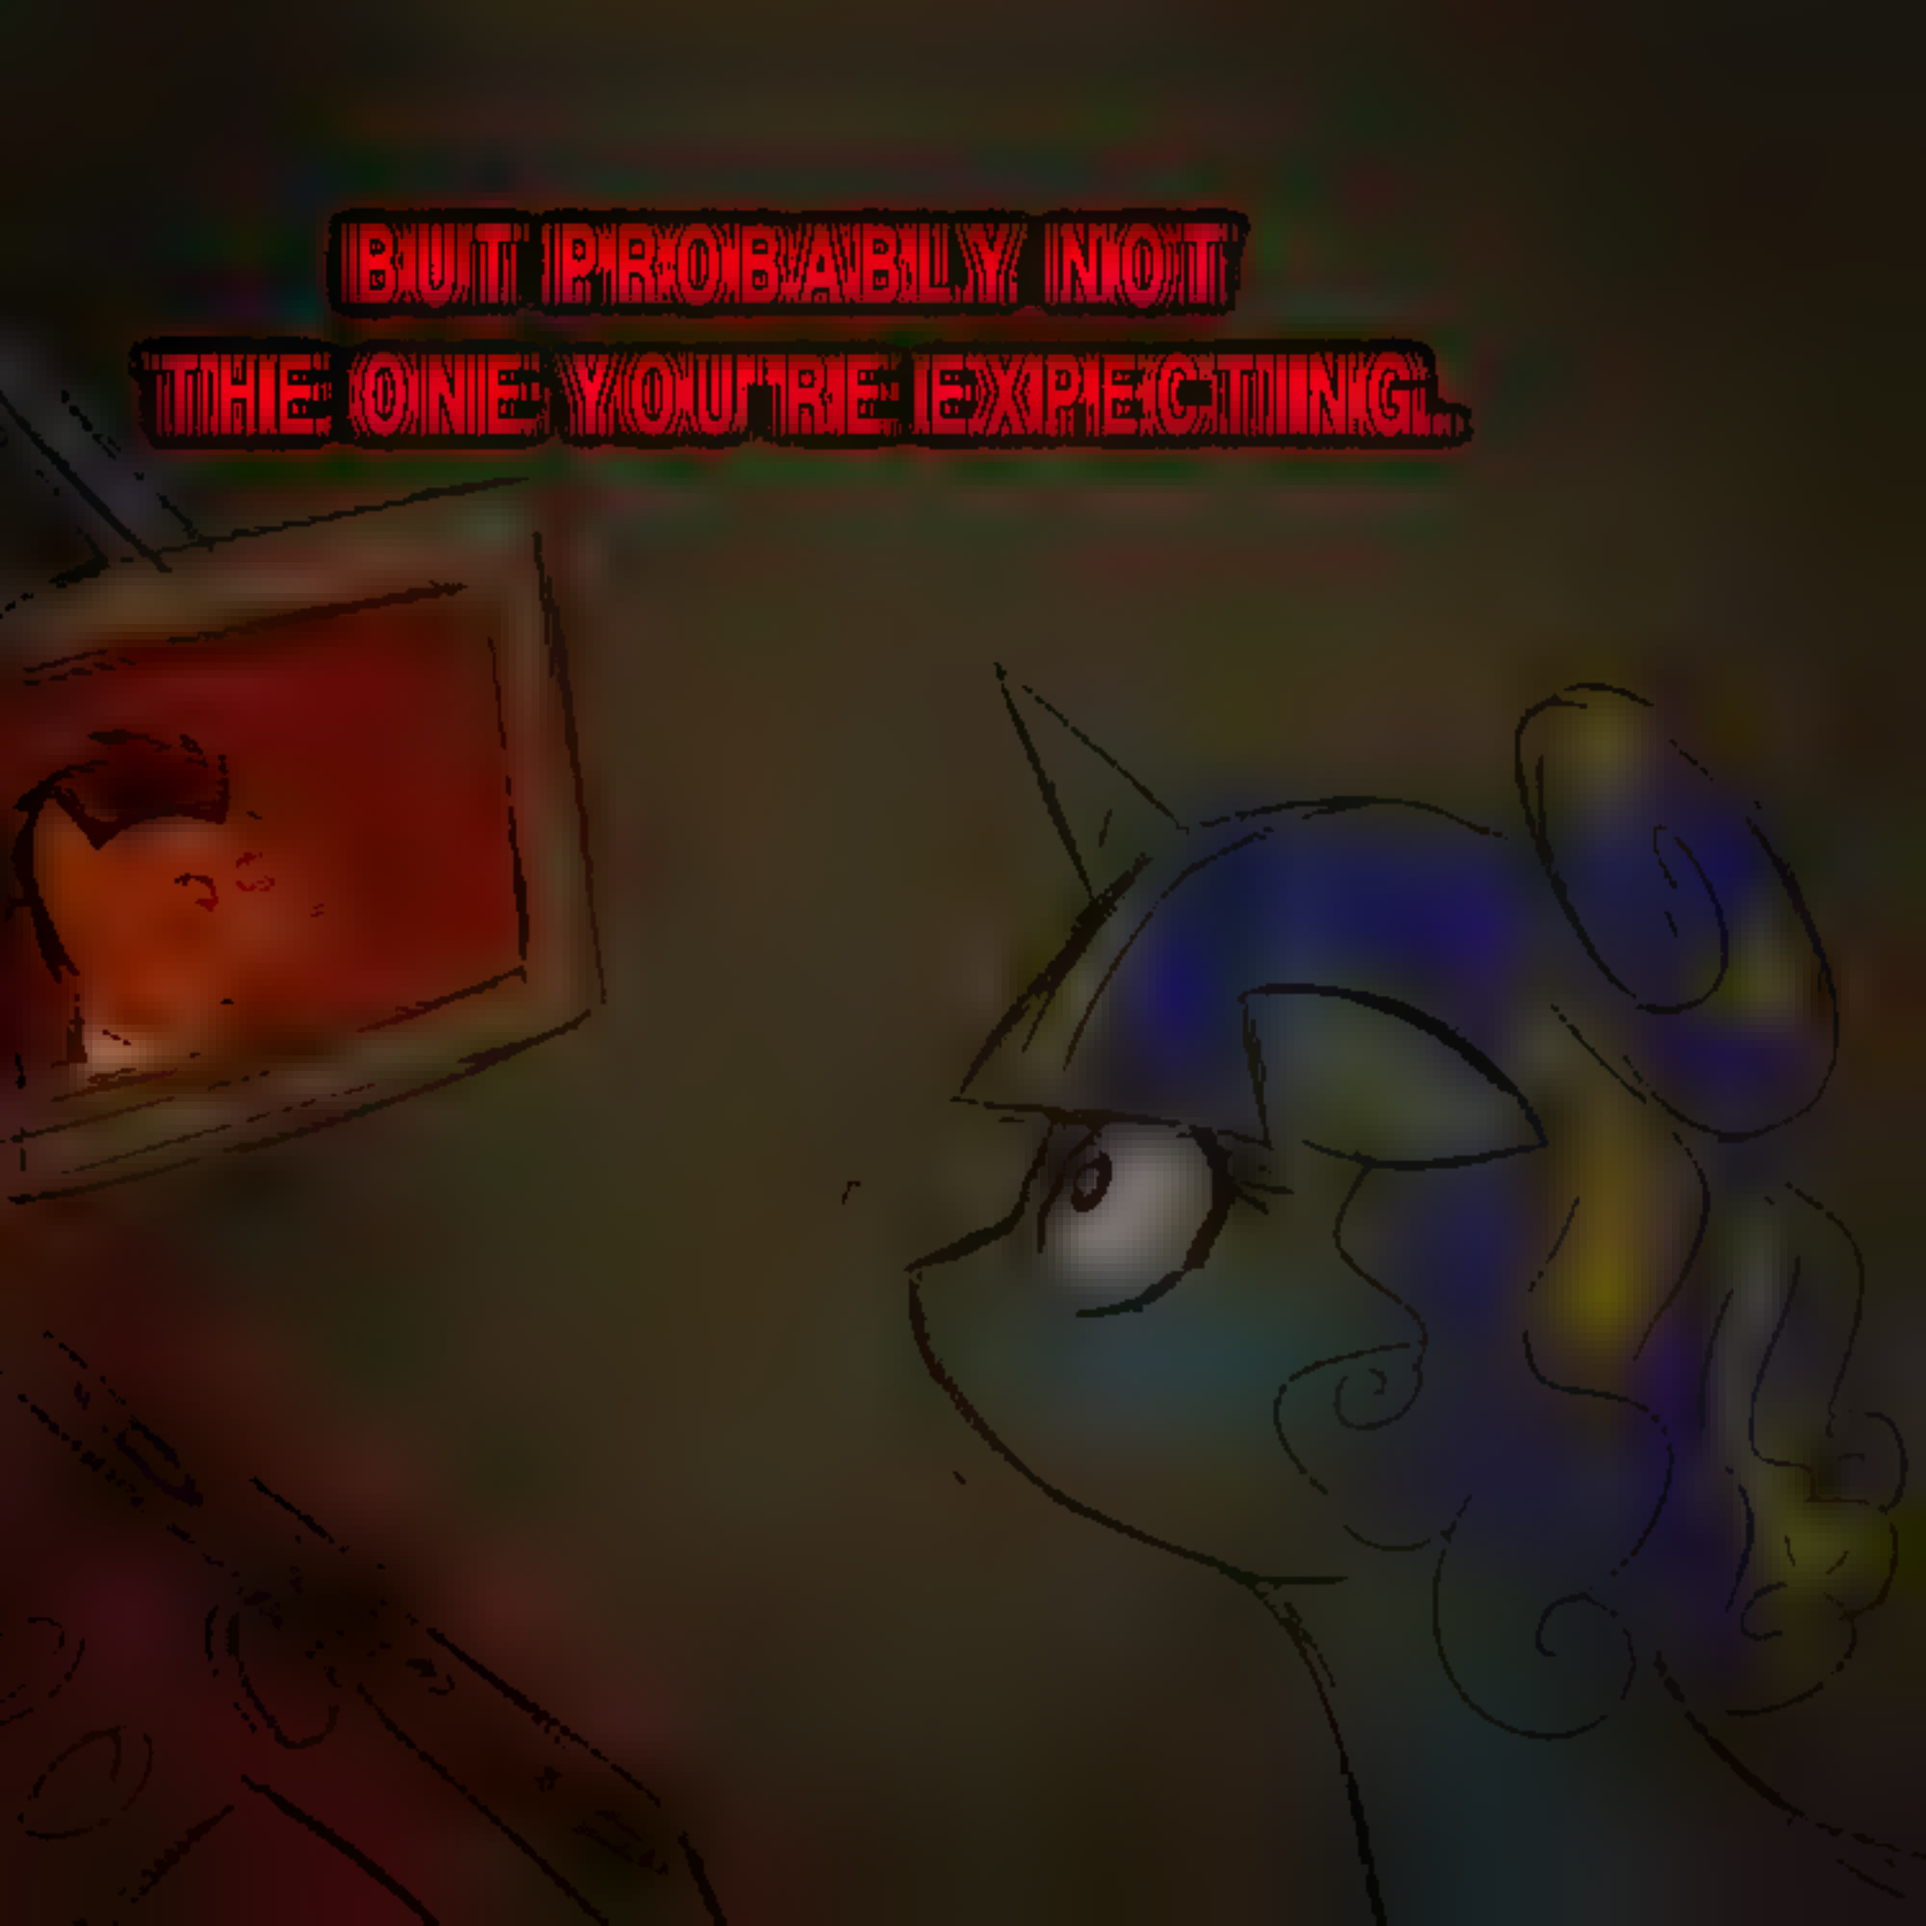
Remember Doctor The Master The Ponds. Donna Martha Rose They are all gone And why would jack want to help you? You made him immortal, endless for all eternity, which you know is not a blessing He needs you But what makes you think that once he finds a way back, He'll bring you along? Trust no one doctor Not Jack not the master, not Derpy Not even twilight Run
I was right all along.

Good...

A puppet can only be useful on the stage...

DID SOMEONE
CALL FOR HELP?

DONT WORRY
I'M A DOCTOR



BUT PROBABLY NOT
THE ONE YOU'RE EXPECTING.

Ahem

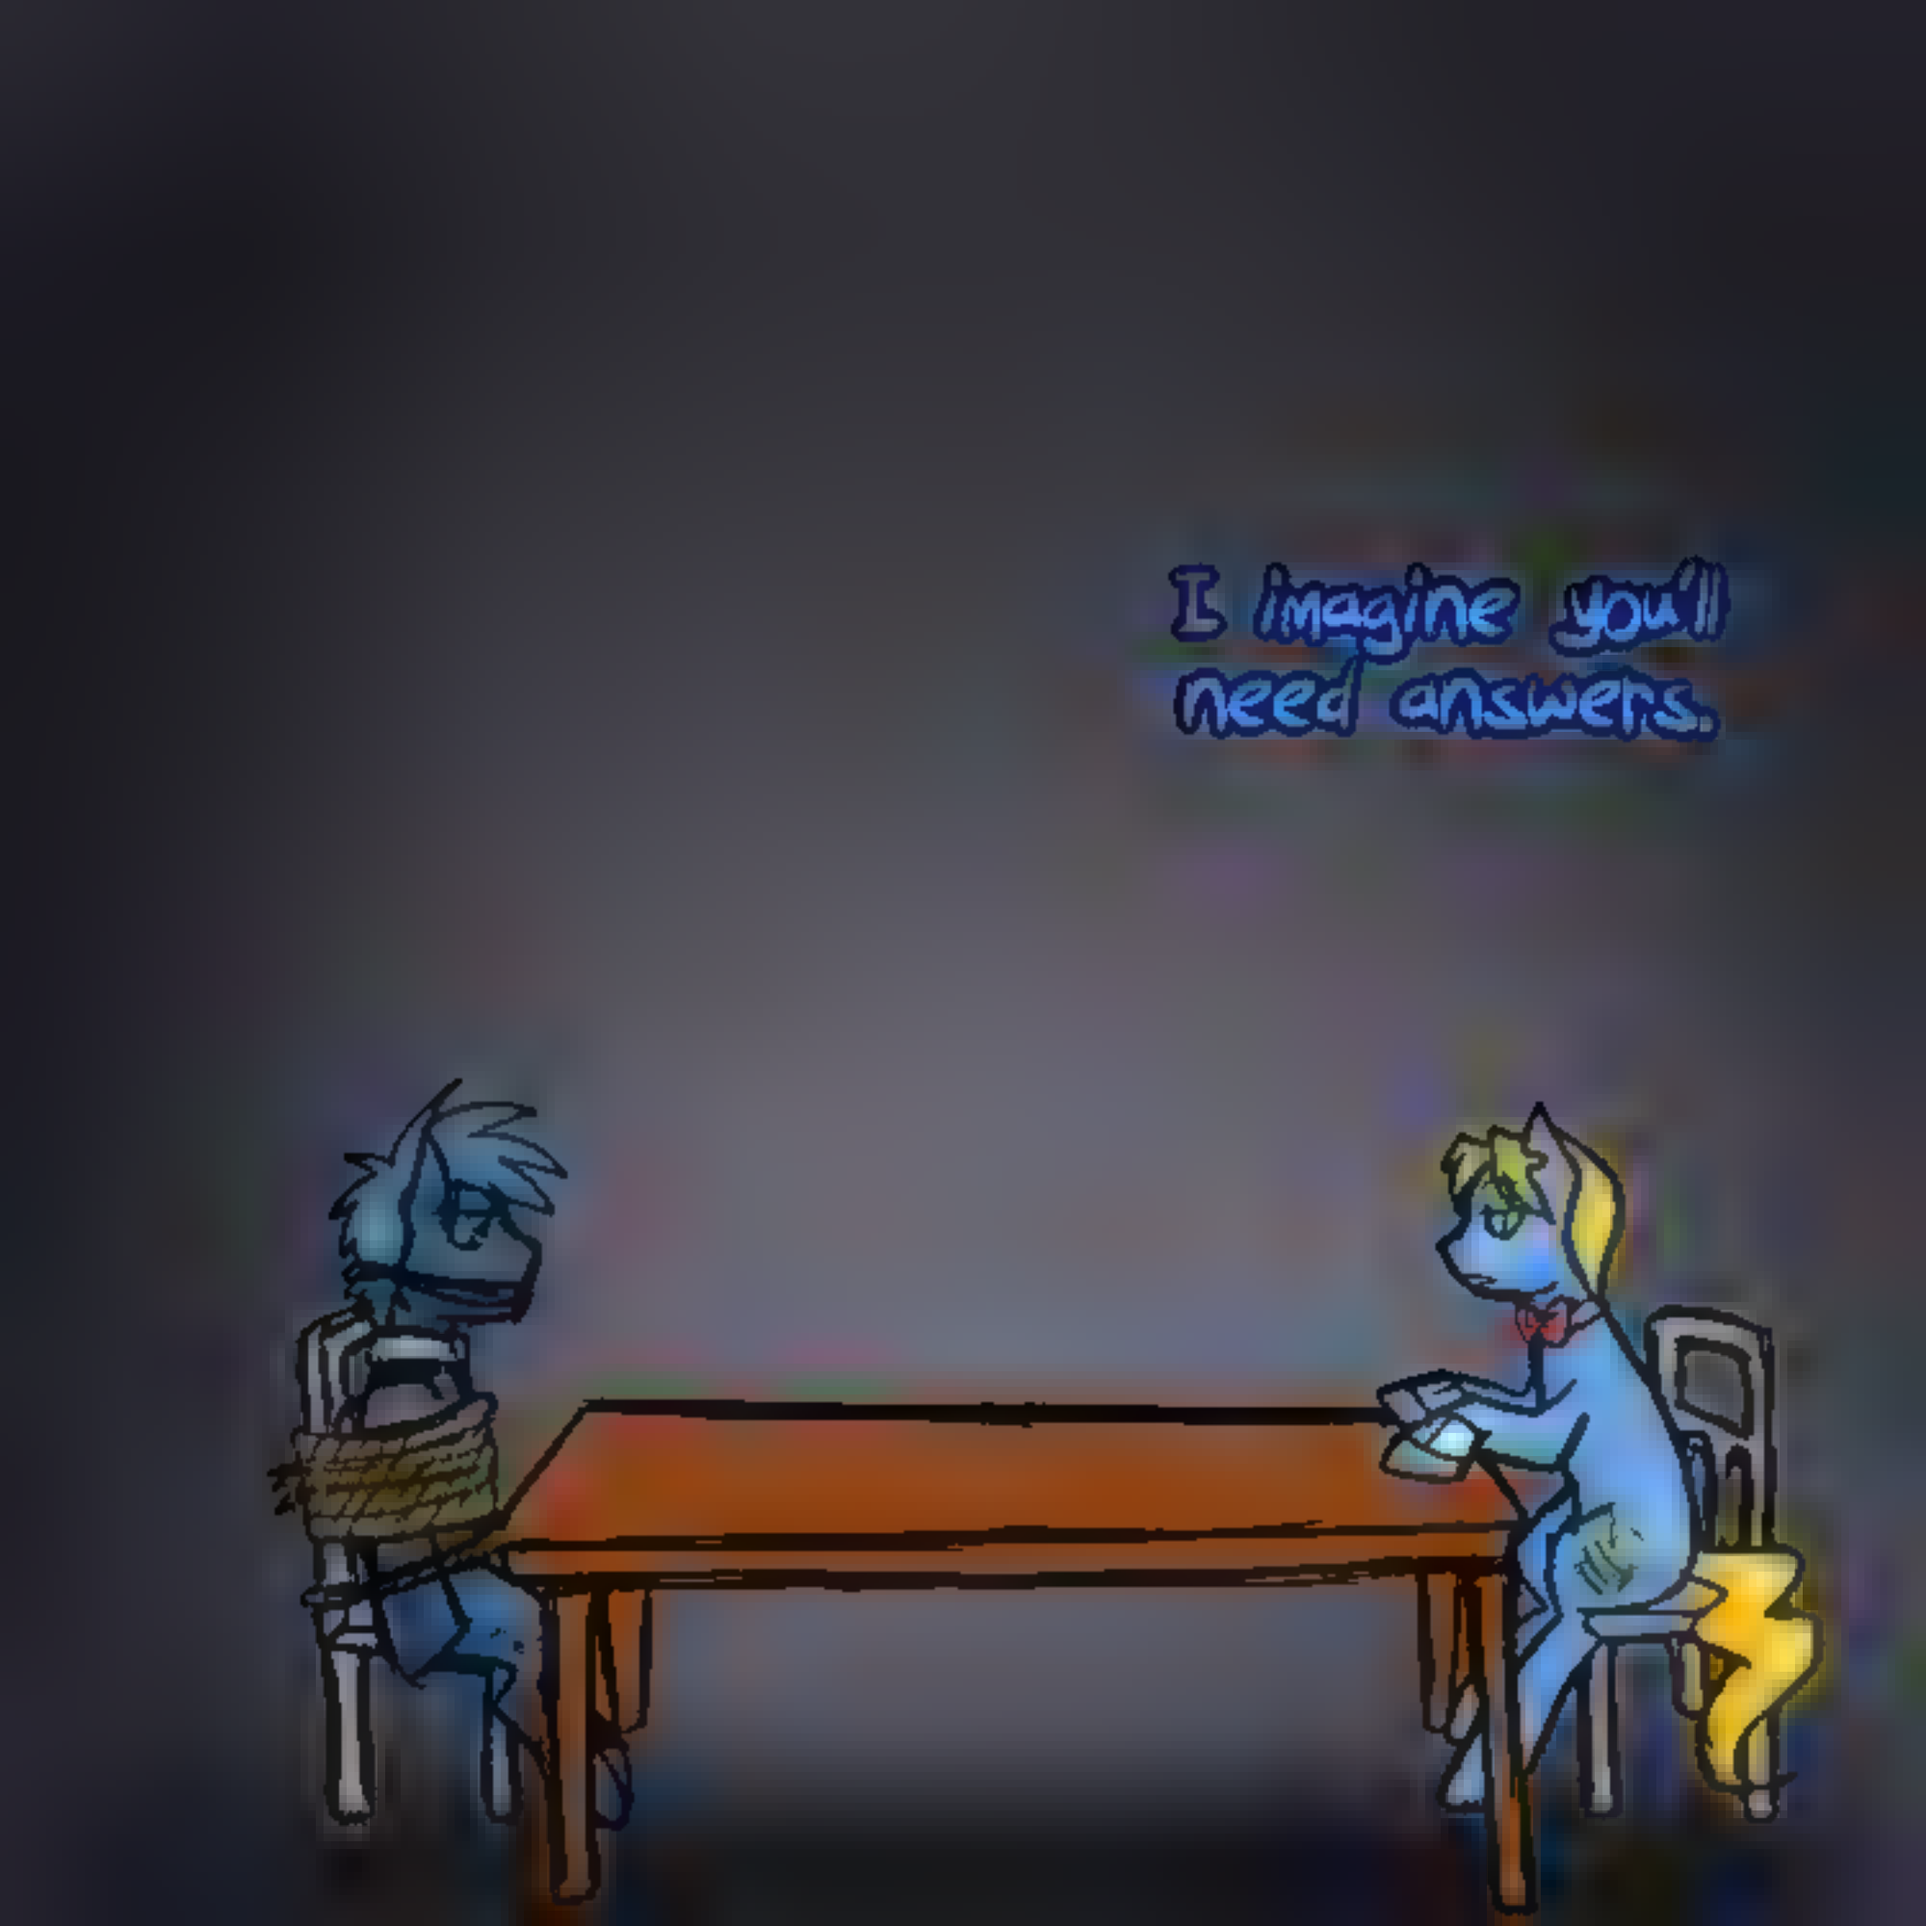
Good morning, sunshine.



I imagine you'll need answers.

The Doctor shot me too,
though he did one hell of a number on you.
I had to pick you up with a mop and some tweezers when I found you.

Also, yes,
I tied you up.

What I want is for you to hear me out.

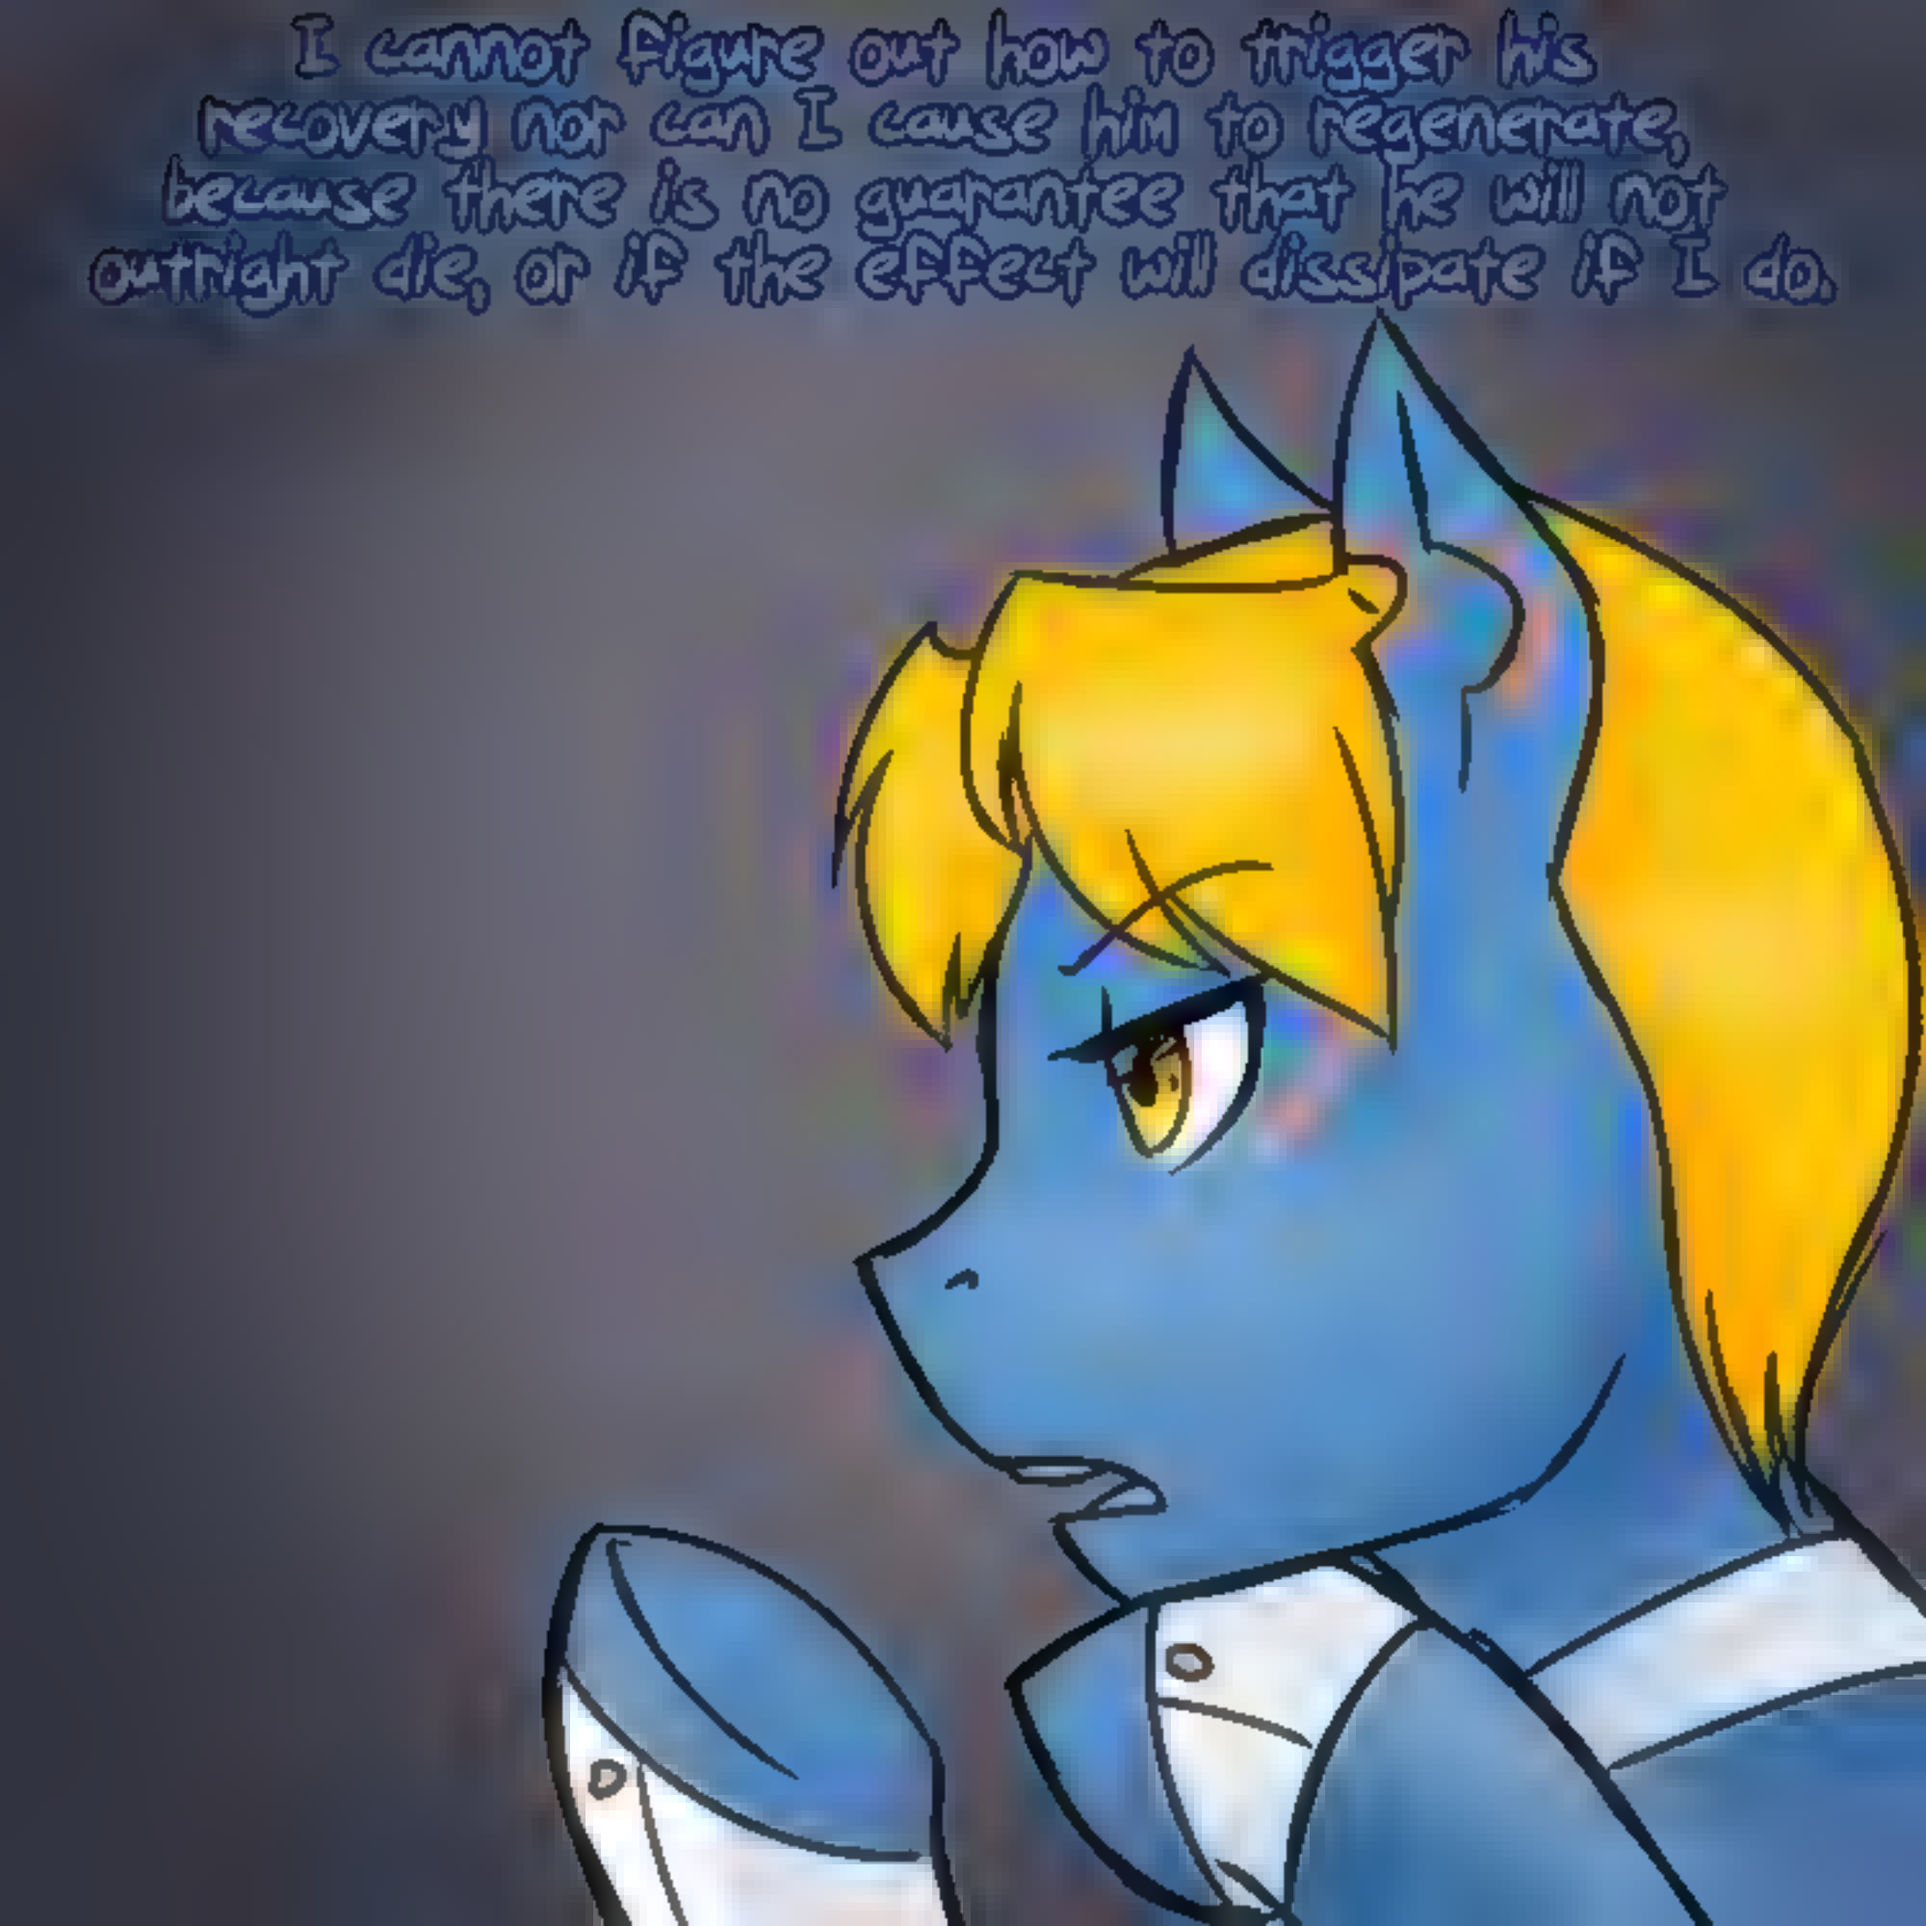
The Doctor has never been this bad in all the time I've known him, and I've known him for lifetimes longer than anyone else. He's going through a strange phase of something I can't identify.



I cannot figure out how to trigger his recovery nor can I cause him to regenerate, because there is no guarantee that he will not outright die, or if the effect will dissipate if I do.

I am at my wits end and if things keep progressing as they are, I'll have to kill him just to prevent something horrible from happening to this universe I have come to care for.

I've lost my Patience, and do not want to work
on this alone anymore.

Jack, I need your help.

Now then,
I am going to remove your gag,
and let you speak.
Try to keep it on topic, will you?

o o o o

Dinner in bondage, Master?
It's only our first date

Time and place, Jack.

Forgive me but I'm not too keen on trusting someone who tortured me for a year and killed everyone dear to me.

Yeah, something is wrong with the Doctor. That's obvious. But for all I know, you could be the cause and you're just trying to use me as a pawn.

So, if you don't convince me in the next five minutes,
I'd rather you just repeatedly kill me for an eternity.

If you honestly think for one second that you, with no friends, no tools, and no idea how this universe works, have a single chance in hell on doing this on your own, then just shoot me and be done with it.

What do you need me to do?

I need your expertise. You are good with information. I need as much information as you can gather on the The Doctor's activities for a span of four years, bringing you back long before Twilight Sparkle settled in Ponyville.

Something happened, time is being altered, the walls of the universe are cracking. I am asking you to form Torchwood under my watchful eye, supported by my deep pockets.

I gave up Torchwood, disbanded them.
If I do this, I'm going to need a lot of compensation, a lot of tools, and a lot of free range.
You'll provide this?

Name your terms.
Give me exact details, and we'll discuss it.

A hidden away location,
the Doctor can't find it easily.
A way to move around unseen, a new identity, and obviously the proper technology.

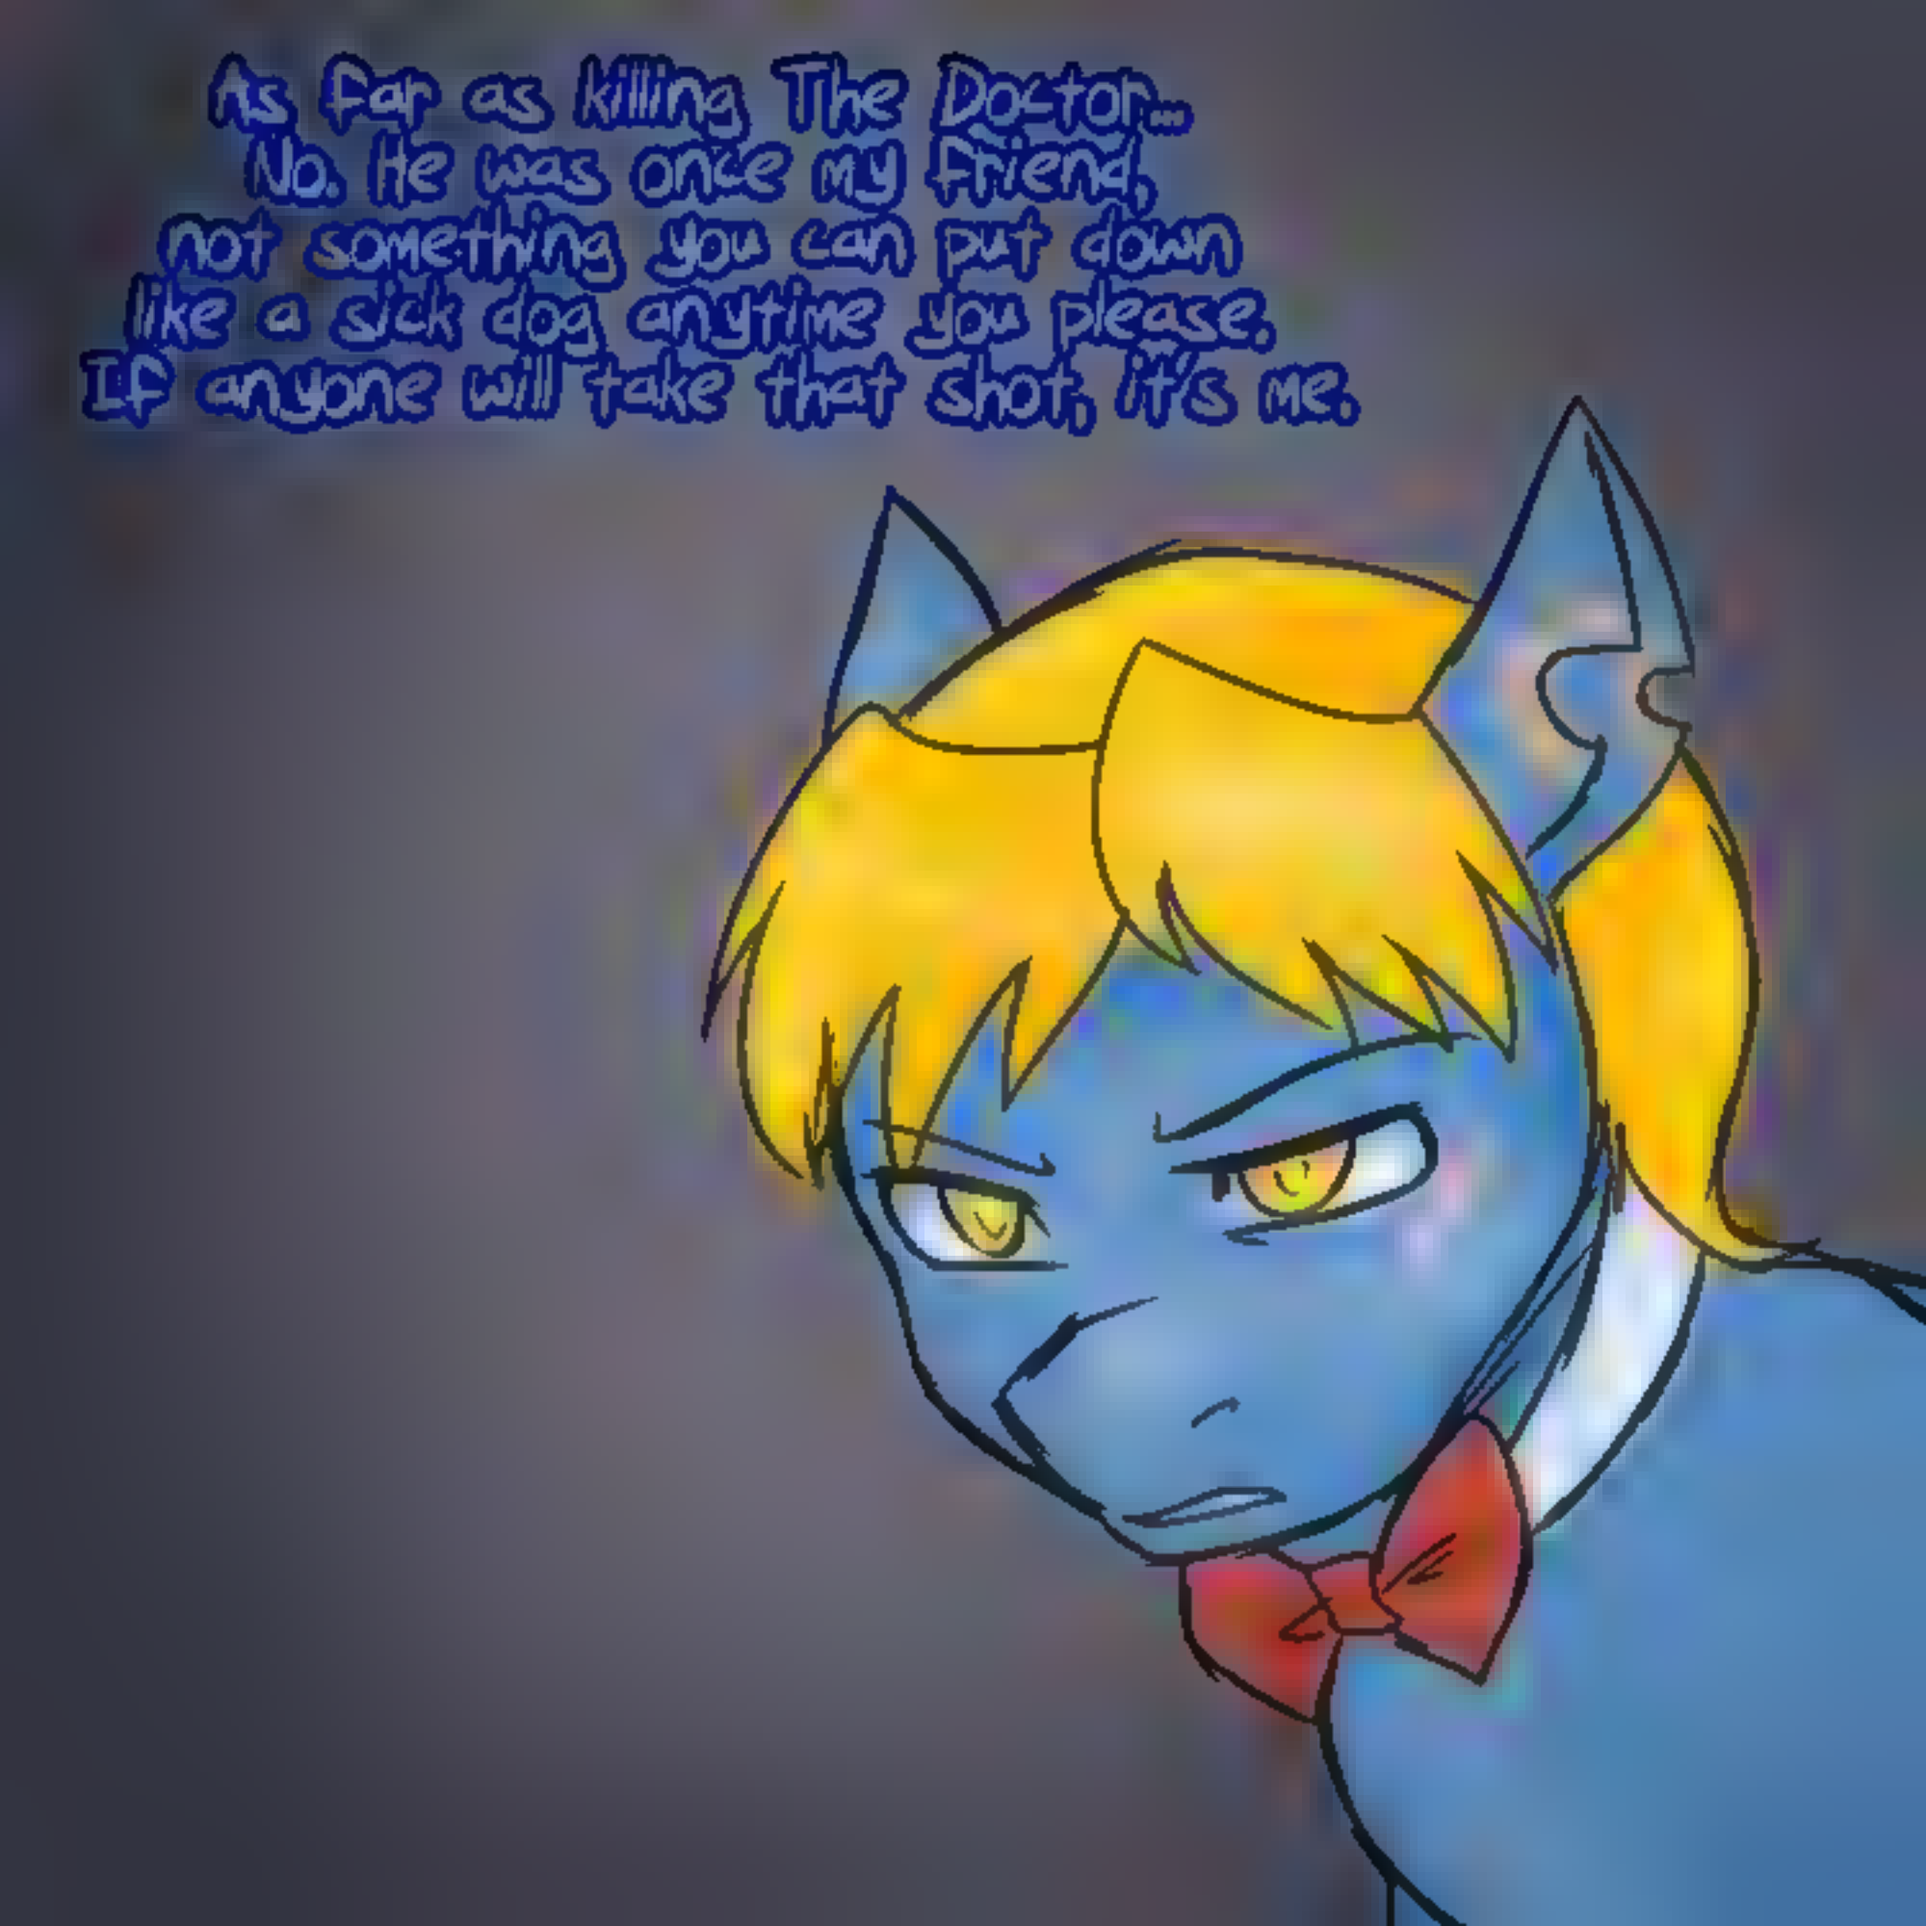
And if I have no other option, you'll let me kill him.

Establish a hub in the Everfree Forest, it's just dangerous enough that he'd avoid it. I will fix your vortex manipulator to allow teleportation, and you're on a type 91 mark 4 war TARDIS. I'm not lacking in technology.



As far as killing The Doctor...
No. He was once my friend, not something you can put down like a sick dog anytime you please.
If anyone will take that shot, it's me.

Fine, but I can't make promises on the last one, since I hardly think you're a friend to him. That's the best you'll get out of me.
Deal.
